Greetings!

We are so excited to announce our first Red Carpet Screening of the new feature documentary, "BellaVita--A Beautiful Life" at the historical Golden State Theatre in Monterey, CA. on December 2, 2011. Modern Manna is committed to sharing the health message and the gospel of salvation to the world, and this new evangelistic effort needs prayers and supporters.

The idea came to me to show the new movie in a theater after I saw the documentary 9,000 Needles at a historical theater in Santa Cruz, CA earlier in the year. 9000 Needles profiles an ex-bodybuilder who suffered a stroke, I was inspired to. The partially-paralyzed man goes on to seek alternative therapy (acupuncture) in China after the Health Insurance system of the U.S. fails to provide necessary rehabilitative therapy. The creators promote the film through leased independent and local theaters nationwide. Through their efforts, the film has achieved national recognition, awards at film festivals, and grassroots advocacy for alternative therapies. I attended the film where five hundred people obtained free-online tickets with a VIP invitation to an after-party with refreshments and an opportunity to ask questions and to take action.

God has shown me that we can use the same model with BellaVita--A Beautiful Life. The 54-minute film is an exciting documentary that presents the health message and the gospel in a powerful and gripping way. I have not seen a documentary like it; the health message is perfectly blended with the gospel. We must evangelize the large cites as we draw closer to the final events that are about to take place on the earth. Remember, the health message is the entering wedge.

When I spoke to the booking agent last week, I was surprised to learn that a Christian non-denominational church rents out the theater. In fact, Bob told me that two well-known Christian recording artists, Brandon Heath and Britt Nicole, will be performing on Thursday, December 1, and we could have the theater on Friday. What a possibility to reach hundreds of Christians from other churches, and people of the world, with our God-given health message! The timing and the location are perfect!

When it opened on August 6, 1926, the Golden State Theatre was the last word in movie presentation, and it wasn't a recorded word, as movies with sound were still over the horizon. Seating 1600 people, it was the largest theatre between San Francisco and Los Angeles, and could hold 25% of Monterey's population. It featured modern miracles that were cutting-edge for 1926: hidden lighting that imitated a colorful sunset; an electric seat annunciator system that helped the uniformed ushers seat patrons quickly and efficiently; an emergency generator; an electric central vacuum; and an internal/external telephone system. The cost to show BellaVita--A Beautiful life at this beautiful, historical theater is $1,500.00 for non-profit organizations, and the advertising will cost Modern Manna even more. Please help Modern Manna fund the important, necessary, and unprecedented evangelistic documentary. When guests come to the meetings that follow or to BellaVita Lifestyle Center, they hear the gospel and 3 Angels' Messages, and leave with tracks and books filled with present truth. We want to give out free Ministry of Healing books.

George Hope and I spent hours editing the 25-plus hours of footage down to a 54-minute, fast-paced, heart-moving documentary filled with healing miracles. This unprecedented film captures real guests on an unscripted journey, and their healing miracles using unconventional and natural remedies like charcoal, clay, and herbs to cleanse the 7 elimination organs of the body. BellaVita--A Beautiful Life is about reversing disease through lifestyle changes, cleansing and regeneration, colon detoxification, parasite elimination, liver and gallbladder flushes, and more. How exciting that it will debut on a huge motion picture screen in one of the most sought-out tourist cities in the country - Monterey, California.

We are planning the "Red Carpet Screening" on December 2, at 7 PM on Friday night. The movie will be advertised at the theater's website, the marquee, movie posters, facebook, youtube, local radio, the Coastal Weekly, The Monterey Herald, and other places. Our effort will include free tickets to the screening, and a follow-up question and answer time. We will then invite the audience to our weekend health lectures and live food demonstrations at the Pacific Grove/Monterey SDA Church on Saturday and Sunday. We hope to introduce many curious and spiritually-searching eyes to behold the Lamb of God "Who forgives all your iniquities and heals all your diseases." Ps. 103:3). The live food demonstrations and taste sampling is a key draw to the free event that weekend.

Your feedback to this evangelistic project and outreach to the cities is much appreciated. If you are interested in hosting a Red Carpet Screening in your area, please contact me directly at danny@modernmanna.org. For those of you who are able, please join us on December 2 - 4, 2011 in
