Stream Your Whole Worship Service

Have you wanted to live-stream your whole worship service? Previously it was not legal to live-stream or podcast the music portions of your service but Church Copyright Licensing International has recently announced a new license that allows for streaming or podcasting of live or recorded worship service music. The license, called a Church Streaming & Podcast License is available on their website.

Hoover Accepts UCC Presidency

Paul Hoover, Georgia-Cumberland vice president for administration, has accepted the invitation to become Upper Columbia Conference president. Pictured here with his wife, Patti, he hopes to make the transition to his new role in Spokane, Wash., by March 31. Hoover, who is replacing Bob Folkenberg Jr., has served as a pastor and....

administrator in the Kentucky-Tennessee, Oklahoma and Georgia-Cumberland conferences. “We are deeply honored and humbled to accept the opportunity to serve with so many dedicated wonderful people,” says Hoover. “We look forward to following God’s leading and becoming a part of the Upper Columbia Conference family.” Read more about Paul Hoover at GleanerOnline.org.

The One Project Live Stream

The One Project, a yearly gathering that focuses on Jesus, will be holding its annual gathering in Chicago, Feb. 11–12. While that might be too far for some Northwestern members to attend, don't worry. The project has announced that, thanks to The Hope Channel, they will be offering free live-streaming of the program. For more information and to sign up, visit The1Project.org.

Start Planning for Vacation Bible School

While it maybe cold and snowy around the Northwest, now is the time to start thinking about the Vacation Bible School program for your church. This year’s program from the Review and Herald, titled The Investigation Station: The Genesis Factor, is available now. Created by a team of local church VBS leaders, children’s ministries directors, and pastors, the program teaches kids to investigate God’s Word. Featuring Adventist beliefs including God as the Creator, the seventh-day Sabbath, baptism, and heaven, The Investigation Station: The Genesis Factor is designed to connect with community children while engaging Adventist children in learning Bible truths. The program is available in English and Spanish from AdventSource or your local ABC.

Prepare for Christian Family Week: Feb. 9–16

With the week of Feb. 9–16 set aside for Christian Family Week, the North American Division version of the Adventist World magazine shares some ideas to help families pray, worship and spend time together. Read the article, titled “Celebrate Christian Family Week” on pages 34–37 of the January issue on AdventistWorld.org.

Paul Hoover, Georgia-Cumberland vice president for administration, has accepted the invitation to become Upper Columbia Conference president, replacing Bob Folkenberg Jr. who now serves as president of the China Union Mission. Pictured here with his wife, Patti, he hopes to make the transition to his new role in Spokane, Wash., by March 31.

A 1980 theology graduate of Southern Missionary College (Southern Adventist University) in Collegedale, Tenn., Hoover holds Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Mich.

Hoover has served as pastor in the Kentucky-Tennessee, Oklahoma and Georgia-Cumberland conferences. Since 2010, he has been an administrator for the Georgia-Cumberland Conference. He has advanced training and experience in reconciliation services and has been responsible for co-leadership development of conference administrators, pastors and educators.

The Hoovers have two grown sons, Paul Jr. and Philip, and two granddaughters. They are excited about this new challenge.

Hoover says: "On behalf of Patti and myself, we want you to know we are deeply honored and humbled to accept this opportunity to serve with so many dedicated wonderful people. We look forward to following God's leading and becoming a part of the Upper Columbia Conference family."
