GLENDALE CITY CHURCH NEWS
July 3, 2012

Dear Center,

Memorial services for Laura Lynn Trotman, the Silvestris’ daughter, will be held on July 21, 2 p.m., chapel.

Second Saturday Series, July 14, 4 p.m., will feature Sean O’Neal, organist, free-will offering admission. Sean Coburn O’Neal was born and raised in Long Beach and is no stranger to City Church, as he has filled in for Kemp Smeal over the last decade. Sean is a pipe organ builder in addition to being an organist who has received various musical honors and awards. A reception will follow the concert. All welcome. Read more...

This Sabbath we will be honoring our graduates during worship service. You still have time to submit a graduate's name to the office no later than Thursday afternoon.

The next potluck and L.A. Adventist Forum will be July 28. Forum welcomes Jeff Gang, MDiv., Andrews University; DMin., Fuller Theological Seminary; and senior pastor of the Anaheim Seventh-day Adventist Church. Topic, “Are We Still a Movement? Four Directions for 21st Century Adventism.”

The Second Saturday Series at the Glendale City Seventh-day Adventist church on July 14, 2012, at 4:00 p.m. will feature organist, Sean O'Neal. Free-will donations are received at the door.

Composers for the July concert include: Craig Phillips, Dietrich Buxtehude, Herbert Howells, and Charles-Marie Widor.

The organ is a 150-rank Colby-Harrach symphonic organ. It utilizes a hybrid configuration of wind blown pipe work and digital technology on four manuals.

The concert will be followed by a reception in the fellowship hall allowing guests to meet the artist.

Sean Coburn O'Neal was born and raised in Long Beach, California. He began musical studies at age 10, and his teachers included Carylon Van Essen (piano) and James Walker (organ). Sean has received various musical honors and awards from various musical organizations, most notably having been awarded the first place performance prize in two regional American Guild of Organists competitions: Arizona, 1995; and Hawaii, 1997.

Sean is a frequent recitalist, both locally and around the United States, having been featured at the national AGO convention in Denver, Colorado (1998) and has performed in other prestigious venues around the U.S. such as St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral (Seattle, Washington), Grace Episcopal Cathedral (San Francisco, California), St. Mary's Catholic Cathedral (San Francisco, California), First Congregational Church (Los Angeles, California), and at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels (Los Angeles, California). In June of 2000, Sean was featured on the national public radio program “Pipe Dreams” and, in September of 2001, was the featured soloist with the Long Beach Symphony in a performance of the “Organ Symphony” by Saint-Saens.

Sean is a pipe organ builder with the Long Beach based firm O'Neal, David & Associates, is the accompanist for the Cal State University Long Beach 49er Chorus, and is the Director of Music & Organist/Choirmaster at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Covina, California.
