Larry Hall (Trumpet) is a graduate of Indiana University, where he studied with Professor William Adam. Toured with Buddy Rich and recorded Roar of '74. Moved to Los Angeles in 1979. Recorded with Natalie Cole, Frank Sinatra, Ray Charles, Wayne Bergeron, Andy Martin, and Gordon Goodwin. Played on movie soundtracks: Back to the Future I, II, and III, Dances with Wolves, and Forrest Gump. TV shows include The Simpsons, Warner Brothers' cartoons, and Family Guy. Appeared with the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra and L.A. Opera. Larry has played for numerous Broadway shows, including The Producers, CATS, Phantom of the Opera, and Wicked.

David Johns (Trumpet) has a master’s degree in music from the University of Southern California. He has played in many local orchestras including the Santa Barbara Symphony, Ventura Symphony, San Fernando Valley, and Burbank Symphony. He has recorded a CD titled, “Sweet Hour of Prayer,” with his wife who plays the harp. He has also recorded with Philip Webb who sings with the Metropolitan Opera in New York. He has made several recordings with the Grace Community Church orchestra where he is a member.

Joseph Meyer (French Horn) is principal horn with the Long Beach Symphony and a member of the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra. He has played on so many movie sound tracks that for several years he has been asked to play in the prestigious Academy Awards Orchestra. He has also played in the L.A. Opera Orchestra and numerous local orchestras, small ensembles, and light operas in the L.A. area.

Charlie Morillas (Trombone) has a bachelor’s of music from the University of Southern California. He has played on numerous motion pictures, including The Incredibles, Mr. Popper’s Penguins, and Return of The Planet of the Apes. He has played numerous shows at the Ahmanson, Pantages, and Orange County Performing Arts Center. He is a member of the Grammy nominated Gordon Goodwin Big Phat Band, and many other bands throughout Southern California. When not playing the trombone, he is usually trying to find which shopping mall his wife and 14-year-old son are raiding at that particular moment!

Ross DeRoche (Tuba) has played for many movie soundtracks, including 2012, Sucker Punch, Mr. Popper’s Penguins, Darkest Hour, and Conan. He was score supervisor and contractor for the 1996 and 2002 Olympics and Video Games Live.
