Come to our Christmas Service Petting Zoo, December 22, 9:30-10:50 a.m. in the courtyard, and enjoy refreshments. This will take the place of children’s Sabbath schools that morning. Invite friends; see you there!

The Snow Queen's Secret, presented by the Armenian American Theatrical & Musical Society. This original story will have one show only at Beyond the Stars Palace on Sunday, December 23, 3 p.m. A select number of special tickets have been reserved for church members. See Trayfena Zambre for tickets, or contact the church office.

If you are making a donation to support our concerts, please mark your tithe envelope, “FOM” (Friends of Music). It was discovered after the Christmas concert that several had made contributions that were intended for the concert, but had marked “Music Ministry.” Music Ministry covers the expenses for our weekly music program, while Friends of Music covers our concerts. If you recently made a donation intended for the concerts, please let us know so we can properly acknowledge your gift on our programs during the coming year. We apologize for the confusion, and are grateful for your support of both parts of our music program.

Pathfinders Christmas Toy Drive! Pathfinders are calling on you to bless families in need. The same families we blessed for Thanksgiving can be blessed again by bringing an unwrapped toy. See Hugh Gardner or church office for details!
Remember in prayer: Glenda Mendizabal’s uncle Cesar and Nayeli (family friend), both battling cancer. Also, keep in prayer Pastor Smuts van Rooyen, as he faces some health challenges.

Rose Parade with the Pathfinders, 2013! Buy your tickets now, $90. This includes your transportation to the event, breakfast, and seating. See Hugh Gardner for details.
