Let's Celebrate Cherise's Ordination!

Dear Center,

Sabbath, April 27, 2013. Here is a sneak peek into this very special and full Sabbath day. We look forward to this day of blessed fellowship!

9:30 a.m. Sabbath School Options

• Chapel—Sabbath School Quarterly (traditional): Current study theme: “Major Lessons from Minor Prophets” by Zdravko Stefanovic. Subtitled “Seek the Lord and Live,” these lessons examine how God worked through the last prophets of the Old Testament to reveal God’s grace for fallen humanity.

• Grace Center (Fellowship Hall)—Current book study: “The Future of Faith” by Harvey Cox. Observes how the Christian faith has changed since Bible times, and considers current and likely future trends and what this means for each of us.

• The Living Project (Classroom 9, between choir and youth rooms)—Social and interactive sharing of personal, cultural, religious, scientific, and scriptural stories. As we connect with our stories, we seek to discover our common story in God.

10:50 a.m. Worship Service. Special features that morning will include:

• Special Music in honor of Cherise by the children of A+ Adventist Children’s Center

• Baptism of Debbie Thomas and Child Dedication of her daughter, Shaylee

12:30 p.m. Catered luncheon, featuring Cabrera’s Mexican Food

2:30 p.m. Stay for a presentation in the Chapel by the Drug Alternative Program, a non-profit organization

• Before Cherise was called to City Church, she worked for Freddie and Clifford Harris, co-directors of the Drug Alternative Program, a nonprofit organization that has, for over 22 years, saved men and their families from the ravages of drug addiction. Listen as they share their inspiring story about how they were led to each other and a life-saving ministry.

4:00 p.m. Ordination of Cherise Gardner, Sanctuary

NEW Online Sermon! - March 30, 2013 (Easter Sabbath) - Leif Lind, “Because He Lives” (1:19:39)

Mid-week Bible Study Class “God in the 66,” Tuesday, council room, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Train-the-Trainer Series: Gospel Medical Missionary & Literature Evangelist, April 30-June 2. The Health & Temperance Department of University Seventh-day Adventist Church invites you to attend a month-long training series of health, wellness, and community outreach. Read more...

We will be launching the new Kindergarten (ages 4-7) class on May 4 in the Giraffe Room. Our brand new Kindergarten program shares parables through a storyteller, songs, games, and crafts.

Second Saturday Series - May 11, 2013

The Second Saturday Series proudly presents organist Jonathan Hehn on May 11, 2013, at 4:00 p.m. This concert will include pieces from Dupré, Bach, Brahams, Messiaen, and Swinnen. A reception will be held following the concert to allow an opportunity to meet the artist. Freewill donations are received at the door.

Jonathan Hehn is a brother of the Order of Saint Luke and organist of Trinity United Methodist Church in Tallahassee, Florida. He holds degrees in music and theology from the Florida State University and the University Notre Dame. Jonathan has studied organ with Michael Corzine and Craig Cramer, respectively. He also holds the Choirmaster certificate of the American Guild of Organists and has studied choral conducting with Kevin Fenton, Nancy Menk, and Andre Thomas. Additional time was spent at the Universität Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria, where Jonathan studied organ, improvisation, continuo, and Gregorian chant. He is currently pursuing the Doctor of Music degree at the Florida State University, where he is a teaching assistant in the Organ and Sacred Music Departments.

An active recitalist, Jonathan appears frequently both as a soloist and chamber musician, having performed in Austria and across the United States. In 2007, he won the AGO Regional Competition for Young Organists (Region IV). Jonathan has been a finalist at the National Organ Playing Competition in Fort Wayne and the Albert Schweitzer Organ Festival in Wethersfield. As a scholar he has been the recipient of several awards. His work is now being published by the American Guild of Organists, Saraband Music, and The Hymn Society in the United States and Canada. In 2011 the Hymn Society awarded Jonathan the Austin C. Lovelace scholarship, and in 2012 he was given the Emerging Scholars Award.

Jonathan is the founding director of the Tallahassee Church Music Conference, held every two years in Tallahassee, Florida, and is the co-moderator of a group of scholars within The Hymn Society which focuses on key issues in congregational song. He resides in Tallahassee with his wife Kelly, daughter Edith, and dog Salena.
Pathfinders Rummage Sale

Glendale City Pathfinders Rummage Sale, Sunday, June 9, from 8:00 a.m. to noon. We are now accepting gently used toys, books, purses, house wares, furniture, tools, recreation equipment, media, decorations, baby items, art, crafts, or anything else you can think of!

Help us out and ask your neighbors, family, and friends for donations as well. Please arrange to drop off items at our church during office hours, or call for special arrangements. This sale is a fundraiser for our Pathfinders who will be traveling to Oshkosh next year. If you have any questions, please contact Hugh & Cherise Gardner or Victoria Lucero.
