Manuel Escorcio is a stage, radio, and television personality, entertainer, opera tenor, gospel music singer, voice coach, choral conductor, lyric tenor and linguist - fluent in seven languages. The son of a Portuguese father and French mother, Manuel was born in Mozambique and lives in South Africa. He travels the world sharing his God given musical gifts to enrich the lives of each listener.

Manuel has earned many degrees: a bachelor of arts in theology, and a bachelor and masters of music from the University of Cape Town, South Africa; a Licentiate of Royal Schools of Music, London; and a fellowship from Trinity College of Music in London. His operatic career, as the principal tenor for the Cape Town City Opera spanned over 12 years and included over 43 major opera, operetta, and musical production roles.

In addition to his 5,000 concerts, Manuel has recorded over fifty CDs, three videos and two DVDs. His CDs comprise a wide spectrum of genres of music from light classics to romantic ballads to gospel music ranging from traditional hymns to more contemporary songs.

Manuel’s experiences include quartet manager, director, and member; university professor of music; and judge of choirs and pieces performed at art festivals. His musical presentations have ranged from small social teas to weddings to church services to stadiums holding many thousands. Manuel enjoys sharing heartfelt messages through Christian songs, love and romantic themes, and classical arrangements. Every song is presented personably and genuinely with his clear, rich, and warm tenor voice. Every word is clear and meaningful.

He has won three gold and two platinum discs and every major performance award in South Africa, including the Opera Prize, Best Male Vocalist, and Best Gospel CD Production. He also won the radio award for the best classical music radio broadcast and several times has been identified as the most popular artist in South Africa. In 2010 he earned the title “Coach of the Year” when his student won the country wide television Superstar competition.

Over the past few years Manuel has presented gospel and secular concerts in Australia, England, South Africa, Fiji, and the continental United States. He has been the guest artist with Mark Finley and the "It Is Written" television program, frequently films songs for use worldwide with 3ABN, the Hope Channel, and has supported church camp meetings across the United States.

Manuel is truly one of our international stars and one of the most captivating artists to grace the performing stage with his warm personality. He is well loved by audiences all over, participating in over 80 television programs, and has traveled over a million miles throughout the world.

His unique ability to communicate combined with a beautiful tenor voice and wonderful sense of humor, creates an unforgettable performance you don’t want to miss. He has touched millions of hearts and souls with his music.

Many church pastors have provided comments on Manuel’s concerts. Some comments received are:

“She gave us a truly wonderful, worshipful evening.”
“He is vivacious, fun, and delightful.”

“His vocal ability is one of the finest we’ve ever heard.”

“I hope you will indulge yourselves, your congregation, and your community in the rarest of privileges,…a joy-filled, exciting evening of gospel sung from the heart of a world class artist.”

Contact Dave Ferguson
818 203-2071

---

Second Saturday Series
The Second Saturday Series is a free community concert held the second Saturday of each month in the Glendale City Seventh-day Adventist Church located at 610 E. California.

Spread the News
Know someone who might be interested in the Second Saturday Series?
Forward to a friend.

Would you like to Change your subscription?
Not interested any more? Safe Unsubscribe

---

This email contains graphics; if you don't see them view it in your browser.
Powered by Joobi

Spam
Not spam
Forget previous vote