Dear Center

The Second Saturday Series proudly presents organist Ty Woodward on January 11, 2014 at 4:00 p.m. This concert will include pieces from Bach, Mendelssohn, Dupré, Vierne, and more. A reception will be held following the concert to allow an opportunity to meet the artist. Freewill donations are received at the door.

Ty Woodward has played classical and theatre organ concerts that have ranged from performances at Westminster Abbey, London; Trinity Church, New York; The National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D.C.; St. James Cathedral, Toronto; and the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles, to Shea’s Theatre, Buffalo; the Byrd Theatre, Richmond; the Paramount Theatre, Cedar Rapids; the Alabama Theatre, Birmingham; and the outdoor pipe organ in Balboa Park, San Diego, where his July 2012 concert was attended by over 2,300 people. He has played several major works with orchestra including the Symphonie Concertante of Joseph Jongen and Saint-Saens Symphony No. 3.

His recording credits include a solo classical recording on the Aeolian-Skinner organ at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. and a theatre organ recording on the Wurlitzer organ at the Auditorium Theatre in Rochester, New York, along with accompaniments for many choral recordings.

Ty holds a bachelor of music degree in organ performance and a masters degree in choral conducting from the University of Southern California, having studied organ with Cherry Rhodes and Ladd Thomas, and conducting with James Vail and Rodney Eichenberger. He is a former dean of the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and has served on the Commission of Liturgy and Music for the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles. He has also been a staff organist at Disney’s El Capitan Theatre in Hollywood.

As a pipe organ consultant, he has worked with numerous churches in the design and installation of their new pipe organs and is the area representative for the Schantz Organ Company of Orrville, Ohio.
