City Church’s Online Campus (www.citychurch-online.org) has expanded! There are now 14 broadcasts everyday of the week! (Wednesdays will be when the new week’s broadcast begins.)
—Sunday through Friday at 8:00 p.m. Pacific Ttime & Eastern Time
—Saturday mornings at 11:00 a.m., Pacific Ttime & Eastern Time
*For our international friends, it is easy to see our broadcast times in your time zone. Just click on the Timezone drop-down arrow in the upper right corner.
A daily schedule means we can minister to almost anyone most of the time! This means, of course, that we still need a few more chat hosts for the services—welcoming viewers at the beginning, and wishing them God’s blessing at the end of the service. Contact us and we can show you how to become a chat host. It is easier than you think. Become the blessing to those who are unable to worship with us in person!

City Church Online is also re-broadcasting San Francisco's Church 1.0 service Sunday-Friday at 3:30 p.m., and Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Pacific Time. Live-streaming of Church 1.0 is every Saturday at http://new.livestream.com/accounts/5213395.

The L.A. Adventist Forum sessions will likewise be broadcast every Saturday at 3:00 p.m. Visit their new Facebook Page at https://www.facebook.com/AdventistForumLA.

The Second Saturday Series proudly presents organist, Kemp Smeal, on November 8, 2014 at 4:00 p.m. Kemp is currently the organist and pianist in residence for the La Cañada Presbyterian Church and Glendale City Seventh-day Adventist Church. He has performed extensively in the Los Angeles area including Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels and The Crystal Cathedral, as well as other U.S. cities and Europe. This concert will include compositions from Mathias, J. S. Bach, Liszt, and Dupré. A reception will be held following the concert to allow an opportunity to meet the artist.

Kemp L. Smeal is currently the organist and pianist in residence for the La Cañada Presbyterian Church and Glendale City Seventh-day Adventist Church. He has performed extensively in the Los Angeles area including: Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, The Crystal Cathedral, First Congregational Church of Los Angeles, Temple Bat Yahm, Stephen S. Wise Temple, and Glendale Presbyterian Church. He has performed in other U.S. cities and Europe and is a cum laude graduate of Westminster Choir College Princeton, New Jersey, where he studied with Mark Brombaugh and coached with Joan Lippincott and Eugene Roan. He studied accompanying with Martin Katz, and later while in the San Francisco Bay Area, studied piano with Scott Fogelsen at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. While at Westminster Choir College, Kemp studied handbell ringing with Don Allured, and was a member of the concert handbell choir. Kemp is currently the director of the Exultate Ringers at La Cañada Presbyterian Church, and the LA Bronze professional community bell choir.

In line with his academic pursuits, Kemp served as associate professor of accompanying at Vanguard University in Costa Mesa. Kemp is a member of the Los Angeles chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Kemp has released his solo piano album compact disc, “Beside Still Waters,” an eclectic work of original hymn arrangements, classical repertoire, and original compositions for piano. Time Life Video features a number of selections from Kemp’s CD on the video “A Walk with Jesus: A Holy Land Journey with Hymns and Scriptures.” Kemp is the featured organist on the Welsh Choir of Southern California CD “Hearts Afire” playing on the Great Organs of First Congregational Church of Los Angeles, California.

Never a person to limit the range of his skills and interests, Kemp earned a degree in Clinical Psychology at Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, and is a licensed psychotherapist with a private practice in Long Beach, CA. He is a clinical member of the California Association of Marriage and Family Therapists. Kemp has been awarded a listing in Outstanding Young Men in America, and a biographical listing in the 2008 (62nd) Edition of Who’s Who in America.

Apart from his musical and professional interests, Kemp enjoys coastal living, traveling, reading, concerts, and theater.
