Dear Center,

The next potluck will be Saturday, September 19, following worship service. Cuisine theme is Mexican. All are welcome!

Come on out and join us for a good time at the park! On Saturday night, September 19, 8:30 p.m. we’ll be getting together at Glendale Central Park (201 E. Colorado St., Glendale, CA 91205) for the Street Food Cinema! In a short description, it includes outdoor screenings of popular movies, live music from up-and-coming local bands, and some of the city’s most famous food trucks. Street Food Cinema features a different lineup of eats and entertainment for a fabulous variety of fun under the stars. Grab some blankets, pillows, picnic items—even your dog—and come on out. Films are screened in high-def DLP projection, with cinema-quality picture and sound. The movie being shown is called “The Outsiders.” The first 18 tickets can be purchased through Pastor Anthony,
Pastor Arleene, and Pastor Todd for a discounted price. You may also purchase them yourself through Goldstar. Hope to see you there!

The Glendale Noon Concerts series moved to the sanctuary at Glendale City Church, with free admission monthly, every first and third Wednesday of the month. The next event will be on September 16, 12:10-12:40 p.m. All welcome! For more information, please visit http://glendalenoonconcerts.blogspot.com/.

Los Angeles Adventist Forum: There will not be a speaker for September 26. Instead, we invite you to attend City Church to hear guest speaker Herb Montgomery of Renewed Heart Ministries, on Saturday, October 3, 2015 beginning at 1:30 p.m.
Do you yearn for authentic spirituality? Are you tired of having to swallow narrow-minded, simplistic religion in order to belong to a spiritual community? Do you wish Jesus was better than how he’s been portrayed to you? Herb Montgomery knows exactly what you are talking about. Raised in a religion that portrayed a fearful, judgmental Jesus, Herb went on a quest for something better and found a new Jesus he had never met before. On the weekend of October 2 and 3, Herb comes to Glendale City Church for a series of presentations entitled, A Shared Table: Discovering the Heart at the center of the universe that stands with those on the margins.

Urban Liturgy. In 2016, City Church is launching a new spiritual gathering space for people looking to connect with a faith community and with God in ways that aren’t offered in our classic Sabbath morning worship service. Urban Lit is a space where workshop spirituality can be done with new art forms and collaborative thinking and sharing. Introduction/Q&A. Glendale City Church invites you to a safe gathering place for people to work out a shared spirituality that impacts the city for good, Friday, October 2, at 7:30 p.m., after “A Shared Table” by Herb Montgomery. Starting the middle of October, we will be hosting five preview events on Saturday afternoons at 3:00 p.m. to introduce people to Urban Lit and to connect with people who want to help lead this gathering. Preview sessions begin Saturday, October 17, at 3:00 p.m. Watch for more details in the weeks to come! If you can’t wait that long, connect with Pastors Arleene, Anthony, or Todd and they can tell you what they know so far.

Prayer & Squares Quilting Ministry meets on Wednesdays from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Everyone please bring their own lunch and a notebook. For more information, please contact Evie Salzman, coordinator, at 213-369-6898 or salzmanevie@gmail.com. See also http://glendalecitychurch.org/index.php/ministries/prayers-and-squares.html.

Please continue to remember in your prayers Judson Ravi, Marguerite’s daughter, Kevin Teesen, Kathryn Magarian, and Jim and Betty Glenn Miller. Judson Ravi is recovering and is now staying at The Terraces, 2587 E Washington Blvd., Pasadena.

The family of Madelynne Harte from Loma Linda has requested prayers for her health recovery.
They are also looking for caregivers for her, starting October 2.
