How to be the greatest in the greatest place there is

“At that time the disciples came to Jesus and said, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" And He called a child to Himself and set him before them, and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven." Matt. 18:2-4

What an unbelievably significant question Jesus has just answered! How to be the greatest in the greatest place there is - God’s universe. Wow! As I pondered these words of Jesus, I couldn’t help but feel the very heart of God. The God who wants to be a father to us. When a child is fortunate enough to grow up with love, security and all the provisions s/he would ever need, s/he can truly get on with the joy of life.

What traits and characteristics delight and excite heaven? Answer: Childlikeness.

The list of childlike traits pools together some of the most beautiful descriptors conducive to harmony, true greatness and that often elusive pure joie de vivre. Here are but a few: innocence, exuberance, trust, freedom from worry, eagerness to learn, quick to forgive and forget, meekness and humbleness...

The Bible is full of descriptions of our loving Father who is a provider, carer; one who is faithful and loyal; one who is forgiving, kind and nurturing; who loves and gives of himself even unto death. In other words, the more you get to know God as your father, the more you will become like a child destined for the greatest place and for the greatest time in God’s universe.
