The Story Of How God Became Man

Have you ever wondered how differently Christmas would be celebrated if the world fully understood who the baby in the manger was? What if God became one of us? What if he chose to be born in a manger in a town called Bethlehem? What if his mission was to save the world and rescue us from ourselves?

The Christ of Christmas, the Bible tells us is the God of heaven who became one of us. The book of Hebrews in the Bible tells us about the supremacy of Christ –
He is far greater than any other person who has ever walked the earth – far greater than any prophet, greater than Moses, greater than Abraham, Elijah and supreme over every great name this earth has ever heard of. Over everyone and everything, Christ is the Lord of lords and King of kings. Merriam-Webster’s dictionary defines supreme as “highest in rank or authority” or “highest in degree or quality.” In essence, there is none better. The supreme of something is its ultimate. Jesus is the ultimate in power, glory, authority, and importance.

“You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being.” Rev. 4:11

Handel’s music just could not get enough Hallelujahs in his famous ‘Messiah’ -

King of kings, and Lord of lords,
King of kings, and Lord of lords,
And Lord of lords,
And He shall reign,
And He shall reign forever and ever,
King of kings, forever and ever,
And Lord of lords,
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Let’s fill this Christmas with the sounds of Hallelujahs to our wonderful God who reigns for ever and ever, and who in Jesus, has given us a celebration for eternity.
