2 February

“Jesus said, ‘Blessed is the man who does not fall away on account of me’” (Luke 7:23).

Peter, in the High Priest’s courtyard, fell away on account of Jesus. How would we manage in a similar situation where loyalty to Jesus would result in us being cold-shouldered or condemned?

If we cannot stand with Jesus in the court of an unjust judge, neither will we stand with him in the court of the just Judge.

Send this to a friend