God-reliant or Self-reliant

There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death. Prov.16:25

Oh the folly of self-reliance! The foolishness of our unexamined and uninformed choices! Naturally we all like to think that our way is the best. But God is calling us to think again. First appearances can be deceiving as most of us know only too well. It's all too easy to make decisions for ourselves and not even consider what the Lord would have for us. God is inviting us to reconsider how we choose the roads we travel in life. There is only one who knows the future. There is only one who has factored in all the variables. There is only one who can tell the difference between what sugar-laced sorrow is, and what genuine and lasting happiness is.

“A person may think their own ways are right, but the LORD weighs the heart.” Prov. 21:2. If we understand the true condition of our heart, then we'll understand that without God we are in death-zone. “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jer.17:9 “O LORD, I know the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man who walks to direct his own steps.” Jer. 10:23. He implies that, without God, man's plans end in failure and ruin. Rear vision wisdom is far too little, far too often.

“For all who are led by the Spirit of God are the sons of God”. Rom. 8:14. God’s Spirit always leads us away from self-reliance to God-reliance. It is only God who knows the end from the beginning, and only He offers journeys that do not end in dead-ends and death.
