How Great Thou Art

We use a lot of big words when we talk about God. Not only do the words impress, but what they mean and stand for are beyond our grasp. Concepts like, omnipotent, omnipresent, omniscient. These are no less impressive in everyday language – God is all-powerful, all-present and all-knowing. These words express the uppermost limit of our ability to understand power, wisdom, unlimited space, no time and no limitations. The realms of God leave us in awe, and understandably overwhelmed with who He is. When Scripture tells us about the power, wisdom, and eternal nature of God, our brains try to rise to the heights of who God is, but we can only stretch our minds so far before we land to earth with a thud.

“When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him?” Ps. 8:3. “Why even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, you are of more value than many sparrows.” Luke 12:7
That this same God is intimately present with people and among people like you and me is a cause for marvel and wonder, and when contemplated, understood and believed, leaves us in a state of adoration and worship.

Is it any wonder that one of the most popular Christian hymns, How Great Thou Art, makes our soul soar on the wings of God’s glory and majesty?

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:

How great thou art! How great thou art!

It was voted the United Kingdom's favourite hymn by BBC's Songs of Praise and was ranked second (after "Amazing Grace") on a list of the favourite hymns of all

Millions across the world continue to sing this beautiful song, giving God all praise, glory, and honour for who He is - not just the Creator of this universe, but the Saviour of the world. Your Saviour! My Saviour!

*And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin.*

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:

How great thou art! How great thou art!
