Bob Jorgensen and his wife, Vicky, live on a mountain farm in western North Carolina. For a number of years he has been researching the purpose and meaning of the Advent movement, the principles of true education, the significance and relevance of the Three Angels' Messages, as well as the role of agriculture in the lives of God's people in the final events of this world's history. His great desire is to help prepare a people to stand for God in the great test of the last days.
Vegan meals and limited on-campus lodging are available for advance purchase. Beautiful tent sites are also available for those who enjoy camping. Please make reservations early. We look forward to seeing you!

All children's programs are free of cost.
