P.D. Stuart

P.D. Stuart asserts that we are living under what has been called "The greatest recession to sweep the world and to shake up all nations!" In April of 2009, the world heard the official announcement of the New World Order by the leaders at the G20 summit. The focus of this summit was on what has been called "the deepest post-World War II recession!" But is all this economic chaos merely the result of the thoughtless financial deregulation by governments and the unscrupulous actions of the banking and financial cartels? Or might there be more to all of this than meets the eye? Could there be a master-mind behind it all?

Does the book of Revelation warn of a coming decree where violators of religious laws will be punished?

Star of the New Evangelization

Danny Vierra

This booklet is directed to Seventh-day Adventists to inform them of the effort of the Roman Catholic Church to promote the Virgin Mary as a vehicle for evangelism and unification among religions in the Americas. After a discussion of the Pope's visit to Mexico and to St. Louis in the U.S., the author points to the prophecies of the Scriptures and those found in the writings of Ellen White to warn the readers about the inroads of spiritualism. The booklet also discusses miracles and apparitions as they relate to the Marion movement and prophecy. The author points to Scripture as the only safeguard from deceptions that will include not only spiritualism but also promotion of Sunday observance.
