Warning signs that a person may be a compulsive gambler are similar to those of someone who may have an alcohol or other drug addiction problem:

- bills not being paid
- absence from work or school
- behavior changes
- giving up previous hobbies and pursuits
- missing valuables
- deceptive actions and lying
- increase in alcohol/drug use
- obsession with money
- neglect of personal health
- change in eating habits
- abuse of others, especially family members
- borrowing of money

More Gambling Info:

Gambling - The Great Obsession