Working for the Adventist Church

The Health Ministries Department does not oversee employment in the Adventist Church's hospitals and health care facilities.

For information regarding long-term employment, contact the General Conference Secretariat.

For information regarding short-term volunteer service, contact the General Conference Volunteer Office.