Pat's Paragraphs

Dear Friends,

_Hell and Mr. Fudge_ is coming to your DVD player!

Yes, you saw it right! _Hell and Mr. Fudge_ will be available on DVD next month, November 15! You can pre-order right now: Click here!

_Hell and Mr. Fudge_ was reviewed this past weekend by Christian St. John, owner of Christian Film Guide. Christian and I had a little correspondence going and in the process, I asked him if he was a traditionalist (one who believes the doctrine of eternal torment). Christian replied, after watching our film, "I'm not sure now..." He went on to say that "the movie sure raised some interesting, and potentially faith-changing issues." Amen! Do you know people who have never questioned their traditional beliefs? Maybe now is the time to raise questions, in a non-threatening, winsome and entertaining way. While awaiting the release date, you might compile a list of people in your life with whom you could share _Hell and Mr. Fudge_, people who would benefit from a new and broader understanding of the character of God.

Our focus for the next while will be finding ways to get _Hell and Mr. Fudge_ in wide distribution. Your prayers, suggestions and financial support will be very much appreciated!

Praising God every day,

Pat Arrabito

Experts Speak

_Hell and Mr. Fudge_

"_Hell and Mr. Fudge_ debunks a common biblical misconception in a way that entertains while it enlightens -- a novel way to reach minds and, more important, hearts."

-- Paul Brantley, Vice President, North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists.

"_Hell and Mr. Fudge_ is a brilliant film, smartly directed, that tackles an issue facing every person of faith. The acting is first-rate and the impact is profound. It grabbed me from the start."

-- Martin Doblmeier, Journey Films. (Producer of The Adventists.)
