Viewer comments

- "Hell and Mr. Fudge brings you into the eye of the storm. The writing is evocative. The acting is first rate and the impact is profound."
- "A well made film that features some excellent writing and deeply emotional acting that kept me engaged throughout..."
- "I knew nothing about the story when the film started - but it grabbed me from the start. A must see for every person of faith."
- "Finally able to see it...and was completely blown away!"
- "A great film! I was happy to see some really good acting and a good script, which was well-written with good use of charm and humor, too, to lighten things up at appropriate times."
- "The movie went beyond my expectations. The production values...are outstanding, and for me personally, brought an underlying credibility to the whole story, the feel, and the overall experience."
- "I had the pleasure of seeing the movie this past weekend with several friends. What a blessing! It was a packed house!"
- "It was worth every penny. Every person on earth should watch it. It's that good."
- "The film captures the ambiance of some quirky church affairs quite fairly, I thought, without villianizing unnecessarily; I think this is quite an accomplishment in itself. It tells the story of the annihilationist viewpoint rather simply, in view of the complexity that could be involved. And I think that is commendable and opens up the issue for fair consideration.

But it is the humanity and the ethics of Edward Fudge that comes through, and I think that message overshadows the rest of your story, and I think that is just fine. His life and character are worthy of the treatment in film, and if this is an attempt at fostering faith in Jesus Christ as well as a view of hell, this film serves that well. And it does this without preaching. Amazing."(Kenneth Mick)

- It's a thought-provoking presentation that encourages further examination."
- "Thoughtful, challenging, and well-made."
- "Must process and pray."
- "I am always open to the truth. I want to know what both sides base their ideas on in more detail."
- "Well done - great springboard for discussion."
- "This film is fabulous. It held my attention all the way through."
- "Very informative, spell binding movie for all people."
- "Fantastic - humor mixed with truth & excellent acting!"
- "This was a spiritual, uplifting movie. I would highly recommend it."
- "This is a far more interesting and compelling film about Christianity than "Courageous," which somehow feels the need to make its protagonists like action figures."
Great movie. Very enjoyable. It will appeal to the churched - but, it could open some doors as is to the unchurched."

"I grew up Catholic and I always had this belief that if God loved us so much, how could he allow us to burn in HELL. This movie was reconfirming of my beliefs since I was a child. I have never been able to prove that notion and this movie is very confirming in that which I can't wait to share with my family and friends."

bringing Hell and Mr. Fudge to your community

Since the beginning of 2013 more than 90 theaters and churches in the USA and Canada have screened or are scheduled to screen Hell and Mr. Fudge. From northern Maine to southern California, from Alaska to Florida, audiences have laughed and cried and left inspired by this heartwarming and engaging portrayal of Edward Fudge, his search for truth, and his struggle against narrow-minded and biased traditionalism.

LLT Productions continues to offer Hell and Mr. Fudge for public exhibition. Read the information below and see for yourself how you can bring this award-winning film to your area.

- RENT A THEATER OR OTHER PUBLIC VENUE
  - Expenses
  - Advantages and Disadvantages
  - Download movie rental form for theaters and other public venues

- RENT THE MOVIE FOR YOUR CHURCH
  - Download movie rental form for churches
  - PROMOTIONAL MATERIAL AVAILABLE

RENT A THEATER OR OTHER PUBLIC VENUE

Most theaters are happy to rent their facilities for private events. Theater rentals are negotiated between the local church or other group and the theater management. If the theater offers an hourly rate, rental terms should allow for movie run time of 95 minutes plus time for Q&A, etc.

Public libraries, school auditoriums, etc., are also possible venues.

We recommend renting for multiple screenings on different days. Word-of-mouth advertising can help build attendance after the first showing.

Most theaters will not sell tickets for private events. Same with schools, libraries, etc. So it's up to you. Income from ticket sales will help cover theater rental costs and other expenses.

Tickets can be sold at friendly local retail and office locations, by mail, by phone, and online. Online ticketing is easy to set up using sites like brownpapertickets.com and eventbrite.com.

Church members can be encouraged to purchase small blocks of tickets so they can take non-member friends and family to see the movie.

Non-discretionary expenses:

Rental rates: $300 - $1000 per event (higher in premium markets)
Movie rental: $240 (regardless of number of screenings)
DCP digital movie files (theaters only): $150
BluRay disk: $50
Theater posters (2): $50 (where theater will allow their use)

Discretionary expenses:

Advertising and promotion
Follow-up material

Renting - Advantages

You can usually get your preferred dates
You can introduce the movie and do Q&A afterwards
You can pass out literature and do other follow-up in the theater
Ticket sales will help defray your costs

Renting - Disadvantages

You have to pay rent for the theater and the movie
You have to sell tickets

SCREEN THE MOVIE IN YOUR CHURCH OR RENTED AUDITORIUM

Rental DVDs of Hell and Mr. Fudge can be screened in a non-theater venue like your church, your school gym, or a rented auditorium. You can download and print the rental agreement form at this link.
