Dear Hope of Survivors Family,

What an amazing summer it has been! I pray you were richly blessed through your summertime activities and are now enjoying Fall and all it's beauty.

I have some incredible news to share with you--news you have been waiting for, for a long time, just as we have been. But, let me set the stage for the announcement by sharing some devotional thoughts from Luke, chapter one. Make sure you read the whole message--you won't be sorry!

Have you ever wanted something so badly, only to fear it will never come true or happen because time keeps passing by and you never seem to obtain that which you desire? Well, think of how Zacharias felt when he and his wife had been praying for a child for so many years without any indication that it would ever become a reality. In his old age and discouraged, Zacharias dared to doubt the message from God that he and Elisabeth would have a son. Yet, in God's timing, a son was born whose name was John.

Luke chapter one goes on to tell the story of Mary and Joseph, and how the angel appeared to Mary to tell her she would conceive a son and call his name Jesus. Now, for a woman to conceive without ever knowing a man is impossible for us in the human-physical sense, but Luke 1:37 says, "For with God nothing shall be impossible." Mary believed the words of the angel, even though she didn't understand how it could be possible. Luke 1:45 tells us, "And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord."

Did you catch that? "There shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord." That means, what God says He will do, He WILL do! In His time...

Reading the commentary section in my Bible for Luke, chapter one, I read this:

An Answer to Prayer*
...God had not forgotten. He had His appointed time for answering this prayer...
...The answer had come. God had not forgotten the prayer of His servants. He has written it in His record book, to be answered in His own good time.
...the Lord had not forgotten. He knew of the long years of disappointment.

*Referring to Zacharias' prayer for a son.

Wow, how great it is to know that God never forgets and that He has an appointed time to answer our prayers--a perfect time!

That brings me to the present. Well, almost. You see, in June 2005, God spoke to me and Steve--not in an audible voice, but to our minds in a very clear and strong voice--and told us that Steve would become a pastor. We waited. We prayed. We held fast to God's promises in His Word. And, almost four years later, God fulfilled that promise, as Steve's first official day in pastoral ministry was April 1, 2009.

Something else was also happening at that time though. That is also when we were strongly impressed that God wanted The Hope of Survivors to have a healing center--a place of rest, renewal and healing for victims of clergy sexual abuse. On September 7, 2005, we put together our first prospectus and appeal for funds for a healing center. There have been many appeals since that time, and many properties that have been considered, all to no avail.

Until now!

You may recall the last email I sent out about the healing center was after the fundraiser in April and when we found out the home in Pella, Iowa, was no longer an option. We gave up actively looking and fundraising and decided to wait for God to provide it ALL, if that was still His will.

Well, as God would have it, one of the options we thought was no longer available became available again June 27. By July 23, we learned the intent of the owners (who wish to remain anonymous) to donate the property in Bedford, Iowa, as well as the contents of the home, to The Hope of Survivors, with a closing/transfer date of October 1, 2013--eight years from the time we started praying about it.

Habakkuk 2:3 comes to mind as I ponder what God has done, "For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry." God gave us the vision for the healing center and HE has provided it, all in HIS time!

What a miracle!!!

Did you catch that? The prayers for a healing center have been answered! Glory to God!

The owners of the property shared the following with us, "Ever since the Inn opened--we prayed that the home would be a sanctuary for people who needed a quiet, comfortable and peaceful place to stay....and, that God would bring people to the Inn who needed that respite. So, I feel as though the property was being "prepared", if you will, for The Hope of Survivors." Isn't that just incredible? God was preparing the owners, the Inn, me and Steve, and The Hope of Survivors for this awesome blessing!

Now, there is much to do to make things ready and, as you can tell from the calendar, Steve and I will be gone much of the remainder of the year for various speaking engagements and personal time with family, but we hope to set up the program and get settled in shortly after the first of the year.

God provided the home and its contents. Will you help provide for the slight renovations needed (adding bathrooms), ongoing operational expenses and victim scholarships (for those who can't afford the cost to travel and stay)? We have yet to know all the costs involved, but I can tell you this, The Hope of Survivors needs your regular, monthly contributions in order to provide the ongoing support we make available for victims. Please consider signing up for recurring donations today. Thank you!

"And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise."--Hebrews 6:15

God bless you,
Samantha Nelson

Update from CCU
By Sandy Kirkham, Member Advisory Panel/Victim Support Services

Today (September 17) I once again had the privilege to speak to the students at Cincinnati Christian University in Professor Yeaton's Leadership class on the topic of pastoral misconduct. I always find the students insightful and engaging. I can understand the passion one would have for teaching whenever I am around these students, so eager to learn and absorb information. I appreciate their interest in learning more about such a difficult and, often times, sensitive topic. I also want to thank Professors Yeaton and Shannon for the opportunity to speak and be a part of the discussion.

Spiritual Abuse and How It Can Lead to Other Abuses Like Clergy Sexual Abuse —Barb Orlowski, D.Min.
Introduction

When looking at spiritual abuse, you often find that there is a relationship with other abuses—spiritual, physical, emotional, verbal, and sexual. Where you find at least one abuse on the surface, you frequently find all the rest lurking nearby.

This article briefly looks at how spiritual abuse specifically ties in with some of these other forms of abuse. In order to understand the relationship with other abuses we must first define what spiritual abuse is. Here is my brief definition:

“Spiritual abuse involves using one’s spiritual authority inappropriately and thereby violating the sacred trust of a spiritual shepherd.”

“The misuse of ecclesiastical power to control and manipulate congregants, ultimately results in damage.”

It is, therefore, imperative to understand what spiritual abuse is in order to make an appropriate assessment.

Brief Facts About Spiritual Abuse

1. What are some faulty perceptions about spiritual abuse and why people leave their home church?

Misperception 1. Isn’t spiritual abuse what happens to people in cult groups? If people get caught up in groups that don’t preach the Gospel clearly, then they are bound to get sucked into a faulty belief system and experience being spiritually abused. That’s to be expected.

Misperception 2. It is widely felt that people who leave church must be ‘backsliding’ or just too busy for God. People who enjoy attending church find it hard to grasp that there are valid reasons why people have faced the inevitable decision to leave their home church.

Misperception 3. Some people think that it is a perception problem—meaning that vulnerable people seem to perceive that they have been spiritually abused. Besides, there is too much being made out of the term abuse today anyway. It is just a matter of perception, they conclude—after some minor incident that has happened in the church. It could just be a matter of communication or it may simply be a personality conflict with a leader, or whatever.

A Better Response. It is important to be diligent in trying to help church leaders and congregants to understand some of the valid reasons why people have made the decision to leave their home church.

2. How prevalent is spiritual abuse?

There are numerous incidences of spiritual abuse happening in Christian churches today—maybe more than most church or denominational leaders would like to admit. Since many people think that spiritual abuse is only found in cults or cult-like groups, it is a shocking reality to be informed that: spiritual abuse can be found in many Bible-believing churches with orthodox doctrinal statements. It is, therefore, not so much what people believe, but how they practice what they believe that is the issue.

More Christians are beginning to recognize the harmful effects of this leadership behavior on individuals, couples, and families.

Ronald Enroth concludes that:

“It [spiritual abuse] is far more prevalent and much closer to the evangelical mainstream than many are willing to admit.”

From the number of websites that have developed that directly address spiritual abuse and sites that include specific articles on this topic, it adds up to a host of people who are trying to draw this occurrence to the attention of church leaders and congregants in mainstream Christianity.

Furthermore, confidential family counselors are engaged by those wounded, in order to help them to process the feelings of loss and devastation. Caring pastors are sought out to provide comfort and support to those bruised by church leaders. Researchers are faced with the mounting statistics related to this dysfunctional issue in the church. Yes, these observations point to the fact that:

Spiritual abuse needs to come to the CENTER of clergy and congregant attention.

3. Why don’t we hear much about spiritual abuse?

If it is supposed that it is the individual or a couple who ARE the PROBLEM, then this matter can be dealt with privately, behind closed doors. The individual takes the brunt of the situation, but the church leadership is never called into question and is seldom held accountable in any way. The organization and its leadership are rarely included as a factor that might need to be considered in these concealed situations.

Many times, others in their church have no clue what has just happened or why these members are no longer attending. When a tale is spun about the cause of the situation being some kind of sin (that no one talks about) and church members are warned not to associate with these people, then the issue cannot be discerned as being spiritual abuse, but is considered a matter of ‘church discipline’—though very little information seems to be available. The facts are hidden from view and the situation is now considered dealt with.

After an individual or couple have experienced harsh treatment by their clergy, they are usually so devastated that they can hardly grasp what exactly has happened to them. Their usual posture is to go into seclusion and to try to process the extreme grief and confusion that they are experiencing. Little support seems to be available to congregants by denominational overseers. Overseers tend to favor church leaders, while those wounded in the church are left to suffer in silence without any hope of remedy.

Linking Other Abuses

Many have factored in the obvious connection of spiritual abuse with other abuses. The reason behind the direct linkage of various abuses is related to the thinking patterns of certain groups and specifically the church leadership in groups that call themselves Christian. In church cultures where shame and silence are upheld, women particularly, especially younger women, are the most vulnerable to abuse of various kinds. These abuses include: verbal, emotional, physical, spiritual abuse, child sexual abuse, sexual abuse, and clergy sexual abuse.

People’s theology, that is, their belief system, shapes their behavior. How church leaders and congregants view church leadership affects their expectations of leaders. Where there is a feeling of entitlement among leadership, because of position, there may arise opportunities for unscrupulous leaders to take advantage of people by their spiritual leadership position and followers are harmed.

In contexts where patriarchy is valued or where certain aberrant teachings abound, spiritual abuse is evident.

When a culture puts greater value on males, as being:

Central, Superior, and Deserving,

the converse is that females are of lesser value in that society:

Peripheral, Inferior, and Servants.

In patriarchy, men are viewed as divinely mandated or authorized to hold power over women and children. So, a misuse of position in this case is actually spiritual abuse. This kind of bullying, by hiding behind spiritual authority, can occur in homes, churches, and ministries—wherever God is brought into the picture (rightly or wrongly) as the source of the leadership authority. Thus, to go against the man in authority is to go against God Himself. This faulty perception of entitlement can be used to manipulate and even beguile the unwary.

In thinking about spiritual abuse and the connection with other abuses, the word ‘violation’ comes to mind. Something has been violated in each of these cases. In fact, a number of things have been violated: violation of trust, violation of the person’s dignity, a violation of the image of God, a violation of personal value and expected care for the individual, and so forth. Something that is sacred has been treated with a gross lack of respect. The person’s body, mind, and spirit have been violated and defiled by abuse.
Just as spiritual abuse is usually ‘dealt with’ behind closed doors, so also in some churches, when domestic violence, sexual abuse, child sexual abuse, or clergy sexual abuse is identified by congregants as happening in the church, the first response is to keep these issues quiet. Whoever has brought the information forward is now marked and is usually cautioned not to divulge these facts to anyone. Certain churches feel that they have a right to deal with human sin in-house and are not obligated to alert local authorities, though this is the law.

As stated above, spiritual abuse, emotional abuse, physical abuse, domestic violence, and sexual abuses are repeatedly treated the same way: “The individual takes the brunt of the situation, but the church leadership is never called into question and is seldom held accountable in any way. The church organization and its leadership are rarely included as a factor that might need to be considered in these concealed situations.”

Summary

It is extremely grievous that these forms of abuse are linked and are found in the Christian church today. You would think that after all that the Church has learned from the Scriptures about living a godly and healthy spiritual life and being in a spiritual fellowship with others, that there would be robust spiritual life that would be manifested in a healthy approach to all of life. Evidence of the reign of God should be found among the people of God. This, unfortunately, is not always the case.

There is much injury that has been done in the name of the Church and scores of God’s people have been severely harmed. Since abuse is kept hidden, abuse can thrive. It is when flawed beliefs and abusive practices have been identified and exposed that there is some hope that this scourge on the Christian Church will be remedied. It will take every serious Christian to make a difference by raising the awareness about these issues and dealing in sensible ways with those who have been harmed.

The Hope of Survivors - A New Awakening

A New Awakening—Shyleene Rosado, LPC, V.P. Latino Division
Every morning we wake up with new tasks or perhaps the need to finish many of them we’ve already started. As Christians, we seek to proclaim the message of God and His Word every morning. It is a new awakening, a new opportunity, that God gives us to talk to those around us of his love and hope for this world full of pain and sadness.

The Hope of Survivors proclaims this message of love and hope to victims of clergy sexual abuse. How does it? There are several ways. The one I am going to mention today is by participating in conventions like ASI.

This year, The Hope of Survivors once again was part of the ASI International Convention in Orlando, Florida, where we represented the Latino Division.

La Esperanza de los Sobrevivientes. For those new readers, the purpose of ASI is to provide challenge, nurture and experience in sharing Christ in the Marketplace as well as to support the global mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This opportunity allowed us to provide information about clergy sexual abuse and prevention to persons that gathered at this event from all around the world.

This was a new awakening for about 650 people who visited our booth. People were willing to listen openly about this problem, recognizing more than ever the urgent need to educate our youth, pastors and congregations in general, compared with previous years where people were very surprised or incredulous about sexual abuse by the pastor.

These are some of the comments collected:

“This is information we will share in our church. Thank you for this message of hope.”—Canada

“We need to join forces to prevent this abuse from happening so often in churches, and so that this ministry can continue healing and saving hearts for God.”—Puerto Rico

“I thank God for the existence of this ministry. It touches me personally.”—FL

“It was my joy to know about your ministry and get acquainted. I look forward to contacting your ministry.”—MD

For me it is very clear that The Hope of Survivors/La Esperanza de los Sobrevivientes is harvesting fruits from great efforts to educate religious communities about this sad reality of clergy sexual abuse. But there is still much work to do.

“Christ calls upon us to labor patiently and perseveringly for the thousands perishing in their sins, scattered in all lands, like wrecks on a desert shore. Those who share in Christ’s glory must share also in His ministry, helping the weak, the wretched, and the despondent.” (Testimony Treasures Volume 3, p. 299.2).

Only with the power of God, the Holy Spirit, and the help you give through prayer, donations and joining this ministry, will it be possible to continue to have a new awakening in our hearts in order to reach other fainting hearts. Will you accept the invitation of the Savior?

Note: Shyleene and her husband Carlos have been volunteering for The Hope of Survivors/La Esperanza de los Sobrevivientes since...
April 2007. We greatly appreciate their efforts to reach the Spanish-speaking communities and victims of clergy sexual abuse.

“I want to thank you again for your help and support. I honestly don’t know where are lives would be without THOS. Surely God’s hand is in your ministry. I know we need more time to rebuild our lives. I feel I am ready to help THOS at anytime you may need me.”—VA

“Thank you both so much for all of your support for us. Always know that God used your ministry, The Hope of Survivors, to deliver me out of such bondage and abuse from my pastor! I hope and pray that God will abundantly bless THOS and Steve and you so others will be set free too. The Truth is setting me free and I am healing by His Word and Grace. After my time of healing, I would love to work with your ministry however God would like to use me.”—AL

“...Had it not been for Samantha and Hope of Survivors, as well as my sponsor, who lives not far from me and counsels the Spanish community, I would not have received the healing I needed from God. Most people would not even want to hear something as sinister as a pastor doing something you would never expect him to treat a woman who wants more than anything is trust. I had written a book about my emotional healing from God and named it "From caterpillar to butterfly" before the pastor’s abuse, and wish I had never written it. I took it out of anymore print. Now the book's title needs to be "From trust to lust." I thank you all at HOPE [The Hope of Survivors], and I pray God's blessings on all of you. I know every city should be blessed with a HOPE counseling center. This is a type of abuse that is silent and leaves the victim without hope and healing. Samantha saved my life and helped me so much with her encouraging emails and wisdom and knowledge she has gained in helping many women heal when she feels so alone and has lost not only her pastor, but also the women in her church who did not believe her, and eventually had to leave the church she had worshipped and prayed in so often. May God bless HOPE in all ways and bring healing to all women who need so badly for someone to believe her and trust when no one else will hear her cries for help. The Hope of Survivors website is so helpful in knowing others have experienced the pain, hurt, shame, guilt, but through HOPE was able to survive and become a victor. God will someday bring vengeance upon the sin and it is not our place to try to get revenge. Thank you Lord God for providing HOPE to so many hurting women. I am a VICTOR not a VICTIM!”—TX

“The conference was really helpful. I’m so thankful for THOS; can’t imagine how lost we would be without this God-given resource. We hope to be able to bless and give more to the ministry in the future. God bless your ministry!”—IA

“I did find the conference valuable. ...Though I know that it was not my fault, I still have shame around it. But coming to the conference in a safe place is a big step in my acceptance and another step forward in my healing. You and your organization are so needed. Thank you for having the courage to bring this out in the open and help us victims become survivors.”—KS

“I got the most benefit from hearing the testimonies... Every new story helps me understand my experience better and affirms my experience. My appreciation to Dr. Weber for acknowledging clearly how devastating this experience is; to all for making this such a safe environment—a truly safe environment, and for the courageous dedication you show every day in this work.”—CA

“I really appreciate the conference and the website. Hearing the experiences helped me identify my personal feelings and helped in my support.”—AL

“Hearing the testimonies was extremely helpful because we were able to hear about the specific tactics used by a predator, as well as the impact the abuse had on you and Steve.”—NE

“It [the conference] helped me not feel alone.”—MO

“Excellent workshop!”—KS

“Great conference, great information!”—IA

“It was amazing to hear the similarities and be reminded this was not my fault. We are so thankful for the thorough info/website and the active communication with the staff.”—IA

“I thank God for your ministry to bring healing through our Lord and bring comfort to the pain of abuse.”—AL

“Thank you for all you do. We wouldn’t be together if you weren’t there.”—Anonymous

“Your organization is truly a gift from God to us. It has answered so many questions and truly given us hope.”—IA
"I found the booklet very informative. In it I found answers to a number of questions I had hovering in the back of my mind. I will be mailing out the other copies so that spiritual leaders, and associated professionals, may be educated and, hopefully, better able to assist survivors in a sensitive and supportive way. Thank you so much Wendy, for continuing to be available to listen when I need to share. I have faith that out of all this, God has great things in store for the New Year ahead. I am going to be looking back at the website to see what ways I can contribute to THOS." —MA

"THOS has always helped me give the proper language to what I experienced." —TX

"You and Steve have shown God to me in a way that no one else ever has—as though before, all these people were telling me about this "awesome person who loved me" but you guys actually took the time to introduce Him to me personally. There aren't words to thank you for that..." —NY

"Certainly use any part of my e-mail. I can't say enough of how very thankful I am to you Samantha. You were the one who finally made sense of what was going on in my life. Your willingness to respond to my e-mails even daily was so important to me. I did not have another person in my life who was so attentively caring for my wounded soul." —WI

"Thank you so much for all the work you do. It's been a lifeline to me." —UK

"I will stand with you in prayer and against the enemy. He will NOT win! We have the victory and we will maintain that victory!" —IN

"I know you are doing a wonderful and much-needed work! I am not surprised to hear of Satan's attacks. I will certainly pray for you, and please keep up the work of helping victims of clergy sexual abuse!" —CO

"I haven't spoken to you in quite awhile. I am in tears as I read your email. My heart is soooo heavy for you and The Hope of Survivors. You were there to help me when I REALLY needed to hear the voice of truth and you were there beyond that and I know that you are still there if I need you. And I am only one. I can't imagine what it requires to do what you do for each and every little voice that musters up the courage to call never knowing as their story unfolds, what the battle ahead will require of THOS." —Survivor

"You can count on me to pray diligently for you and the others at THOS as you are under attack. I am also available to talk to anyone that may need it (including you!). You know that I am a licensed counselor for nearly 20 years. I can also make a small, wish it was big, monetary donation to THOS if you let me know how to do that. If you can think of any other way that I can help you please let me know." —FL

"Thank you for sharing this email of general but plain expression of your need for support and prayer. I have had you all on my heart a lot—and I will continue to pray. I strongly believe that the battle you all face is because you dare to help those who have been shackled by Satan and his agents to escape the chains of abuse and death. This is no easy work. I have often thought, as I share with you my burden and prayer requests, that I know you need prayer as much, or more, than I do. Know my heart will continue to pray for God to uphold and bless you with his abundant mercy. May He allow the bread you have cast on the waters to come back on every wave and feed your souls. May He allow you to reap a harvest of good in time for the beautiful seeds of hope, peace, freedom and comfort that you have planted. And while you wait for these times of refreshing, may His Spirit give you light in the darkness, and songs in your night." —MI

"We lift you, all those who serve and victims up in prayer. Your ministry was one of the two earthly supports that God gave us to survive & heal and we will never forget that. I pray for your healing, for peace and for God to fortify you and others who are serving in such an important ministry. Thank you for what you are doing and may God lift you up." —FL

"Your ministry is much needed. It has given me much courage to deal with my ordeal. The devil has been extremely busy lately—he knows he is running out of time. I guess you can use him as an indicator of your value to God by the torment he inflicts on you. :) You have my love and appreciation for your dedication to our Lord, and doubtless the same from any other of the Survivors who have been helped by your ministry." —Australia

"I can tell you now that, had it not been for your personal talk with me, I would never have gotten over the misconduct my pastor displayed toward me and that made me feel, along with his wife, that I was the one who caused it all. It is so sad that the victim is blamed for the misconduct of their pastor." —TX

"I know God has called you for His purpose. Recently on THOS website I read "How to "Tell it to the Church"—Christ's Neglected Commandment” by Martin Weber: What a powerful message! And such a contrast to what I see and hear most often around me. I decided to start donating $20 dollar per month to help your ministry. I want you to know I support what you are doing and I know God has called you to do it.”—OR

“I just read your Newsletter. I just want to encourage you and Steve to push on. God is with you, and you and your volunteers are doing a wonderful and very important work with THOS. Even though, at the moment, I cannot support you financially, I will keep you in my prayers. I will never forget those years, when I was struggling, not only with my past, but also with the lack of friendliness in the church I was at. When I e-mailed you from that Christian bookstore in Germany, you always answered my e-mails straight away—even when I didn't expect an answer. You were there for me in a time when things were very confusing for me. I want to thank you for that, and again, I want to encourage you and Steve to keep on doing the work with THOS that you do so well. God bless you...”—Germany

“My prayers are with you. I know you asked for our prayers for THOS ministry—and you have them! But I am also praying particularly for you, for quick healing from shingles and for God's encouragement and strength. I am so grateful for everything you do. Your ministry has made a huge, healing difference in my life. God bless you and Steve!”—CA

“Samantha, I know you face a great amount of stress and so many people need you—thank you from the very bottom of my heart. I would have never been strong enough to face that testimony without the guidance, love, support, and prayers you have given me over the past 3 years.”—IL

“We are lifting you up in prayer—extra. We just finished praying for you in our family worship. We know you are on the front lines in your specific ministry. Satan would like to stop what you do because hearts are being healed and sin is being revealed. May God continue to sustain and bless you both as well as your efforts. The work He began, He will finish in truth and righteousness.”—AL

“I will forever be thankful for the support I received from Samantha personally several years ago when I contacted Hope of Survivors. The ongoing counseling from Samantha was the starting point of my recovery. I had been abused by a Dr. that I worked with who was also a very respected spiritual leader in our church and community. The confusion that I had experienced for more than four years had me so entangled. Samantha helped me to see the situation for what it was. Offentimes what she said was hard for me to accept. I was very alone and ashamed of what was going on in my life. I was very manipulated by this individual and had an allegiance to him that was so hard to describe when I look back at that time. I knew that if I contacted Samantha she would always respond with Godly advice. I do not know if I would be at this same point if she had not so faithfully supported me through all of her e-mail.

God has done a good work in my life. I have not spoke with Samantha since she resigned the job of counseling but I would like her to know how well I am doing. ...What Satan thought would destroy me and my family made us all stronger. I would like to support this great ministry. I have shared with so many about all that they have done for me. May God continue to give each of the support staff the strength needed for this ministry.”—WI

“I will keep all of those on staff and volunteers in my prayers. What you did for me I will never forget. I know I would not be here if not for your strong opposition to Satan in my trying time of abuse and recovery” —IA

“I do know God is in control...of my life, of your life, of The Hope of Survivors, etc. I also know that Satan is working harder than ever to steal, kill and destroy and, unfortunately, he has found a way into our churches through weak-minded men who yield much power over those under their leadership. As you said, he'll do everything he can to keep you from destroying his work by exposing the evil he is orchestrating. I will pray for you and your ministry. I'm all for hope and healing, but there's got to be honesty, too, and that's a challenge when you're dealing with something that so many try to hide. I wish you the best as you continue to fight the good fight.” —AR

“Keep fighting, Samantha! You can't see us but you are not alone. You have sisters standing with you and some brothers too! Keep up the good work!”—TX

“...The Hope of Survivors is carrying on a much-needed work among a group that currently has no official recognition in the church organization, at least not that I am aware of. My belief is that this is the work that the Lord has asked you and Steve to carry on for Him. Although, you will pass through trials and temptations, He will guide you and bless you. As you know, I have prayed for you and your ministry on numerous occasions and I will talk to the Lord again about your present situation. Blessings to you and Steve and The Hope of Survivors.”—MO
"I've seen a number of websites for survivors, but yours is exceptional!" — MN

"I feel that I have come to a place of healing and peace. I have laid down my fear and pain and have taken up the hope and joy in my relationship with the Lord. Any lingering thoughts or possible future problems don't have as much power to hurt or consume my thoughts anymore. I continue to give thanks to you [Heather] and Hope of Survivors for all the help you have given helping me understand what happened and for your continuing prayers and thoughtful guidance. As you have blessed me, I will continue to bless Hope of Survivors with a monthly contribution so that you may help others out there who have suffered from clergy sexual misconduct. I will continue to keep you in my prayers and Hope of Survivors and if it is God's will try to use my experience to help others however He leads. May God's blessing be with you all." — MD

"I was so excited to have found The Hope of Survivors' website and a way to "speak" to someone that I failed to look over the entire website. There's plenty there for me to read and so far it has all been very helpful. ...and most of what I was trying to ask or express is found on the website. Thanks so much for your time and caring." — VA

"From a recent blog on THOS, I have written a rough version of my story at the hands of my Pastor, please find it attached. I thought mine was such a rare occurrence in the S.D.A. Church and it was only when I found THOS that I realized mine is not so unique as I had feared, unfortunately. …I want people to be aware. Knowledge can be strength!" — Australia

"May God bless your ministry. I think this is going on in the church all the time, and someone needs to speak out. You have a ministry second to none." — Pastor, South Africa

"Thank you for your kind assistance and prayers. I often visit the website for information and encouragement. It is a true blessing. I pray that you continue this work." — MD

"I hope you still remember me [from] way back [in] 2007! Praise God! Now, I can say that now I'm one of the survivors! Thank you for your ministry. Praise God for your ministry. God has used you to make my broken life whole again! Pray for us as we continue to love God with all our hearts and follow Him always! Hope to be able to support your ministry soon! From the bottom of my heart, thank you so much!" — Survivor, Philippines

"My wife is one of the victims associated with this mess in Pella, Iowa. We truly need help over here. If someone does not commit suicide over this whole ordeal I will be very surprised. On a side note...your website has been very helpful. We read it daily. The articles associated with this website have been very helpful and we have forwarded them on to many people within our community. Can someone please respond to this...I don't know how much longer I can hold it together. Thank you." — Survivor, IA

"I am one of the four victims that was manipulated by this sexual predator. This website has been a true answer to prayer and blessing for myself, husband, family and friends. Thank you for your blog entry...God have mercy on us all! I need to process the info you shared—you shall hear from me again. God bless your work!" — Survivor, IA

"Please be encouraged to know, without your help, I fear I would not have made it. Your telephone calls opened my eyes to what had happened with Pastor M. ...Truly, God worked through your ministry to me and I know to so many others. I am so sorry for any hate mail you have received. Look to the Lord for strength and perseverance!" — Survivor, IA

"It has been a long time since we've spoken but you and THOS often run through my mind and are often in my prayers. I'll never stop saying Thank You for doing what you do. Having your hand there always open and extended to me to grab onto whenever I needed to as I pulled myself out of the sludge of the pit I had fallen into with a troubled man in a dangerous position was sometimes the strongest tie I had to truth and healing, though we've never set eyes on each other." — Survivor, FL

"I am an attorney representing a girl who suffered abuse by her Youth Pastor at the age of 16. We found your site and it has been of great help and comfort to my client. I would like any information you have or could share so that my client(s) can interact with other survivors and get help moving on. The church never apologized to the family, said it had no way of knowing such a thing would occur again, and the congregation and clergy have turned against them. The church did not offer any counseling, support, or legal help with the prosecution. The entire family is broken and suffering. I appreciate all the help you can offer via survivor support. Thank you very much for having this site on the Internet. It has already helped the family greatly, as the church’s reaction has stunned them, and they feel lost, at fault, and guilty.”—Attorney, FL

“I just now watched Issues and Answers #148 on THOS website. You are lovely, and I was so deeply touched by everything both you and Steve had to say. Everything from your personal experience, to the empathy you share for others. I’m further touched by how universal the guilt and shame is for those who suffer through these abuse issues; thankful that there is this ministry to reach out and offer this lovely, Christ-centered hope and compassion. I’ve known about your compassion for some time now, but sometimes is just strikes me in a fresh and powerful way.”—OR

“I love reading the monthly newsletter and keeping abreast of all the growth and lives that are being changed due to The Hope of Survivors.”—MO

“Thank you for your kind and encouraging words. They are apples of gold in settings of silver to me.”—FL

“This information will be very useful to me as a pastor and family life educator.”—Pastor, TX

“I’ve been abused; and have been helped by Shyleene Rosado for about a year. I’m still trying to heal, God has been faithful, and I’m not working this year, due to a depression. I would love to help translating for this ministry that has been used by God to reach me and take me out of the darkest hole ever. I think I would be of help in translating from English to Spanish. It would be my pleasure and my honor.”—Maria [Latino Division Testimonial]

“I don’t know what I would have done without your ministry. Through the Internet, you have provided help and healing to me and my family. Thank you!!!♥”—Victim via THOS on Facebook

“I am so grateful to you [Heather] for “entering into my world” and responding to my email. Thank you. It wasn’t until my husband stumbled upon The Hope of Survivors and we both read everything on the site that I came to see that what happened in this scenario was truly abusive. ...Please know how grateful I am to have someone to dialog with on this. I don’t think any of my friends would understand; in fact, one I confided in called it an ‘emotional affair,’ but it was The Hope of Survivors that confirmed to me it was anything but—it was abuse.”—NC

“Words are not enough to express what your ministry has done for me when I was at the lowest point in my life, but I am still going to say thank you. I am also looking forward to being a volunteer with The Hope of Survivors, it is the right thing for me to do.”—NJ

“So great to see you guys are going to be in GEORGIA!!! :D) I hope all is well w/you and w/the ministry. I still think of you from time to time and am still deeply grateful for your help in time of great need. I’ll never forget staring at my computer screen in almost disbelief of what I was reading as I searched your website...that was when I was still grappling to believe that what I had experienced was truly abuse and NOT my fault. Praise God for His chasing after me and healing my wounded heart (from many things). Thanks again for all you do for the Kingdom in this much avoided issue. Keep pressing on!!”—GA

“Thanks for the support...it makes a difference talking to other victims compared to a mate, family, or friends. I don’t think anyone can understand what we’re experiencing until they’ve walked in our shoes!”—MN [comment made to Heather Brown, Victim Support Services volunteer for The Hope of Survivors]

“I am taking a moment ... to tell you how much I have appreciated your website and the quality of material you have made available. I myself have pastored for over 20 years and see the real need for this information as I have, indeed, everyone has, sadly, seen men fall. There is a great need today for an aggressive training of men to be true men of God by leadership—starting in their theological training. I looked at the compilation you put together from the book Christian Service, chpt. 24 on your website and feel that that is a very good place to start. May God continue to bless and honor your ministry as you honor Him with it.”—Dave M.

“I pray for God’s continued blessings for you [Martin] and THOS. You have been God’s blessing to us—the face and heart of our Adventist church. God knew we could not bear this without your ministry.”—FL

“I am, and will always be, grateful to you. If I had not found your website, and if you had not been there for me personally, I would not have known how to put into words what had happened in a way that would have been taken seriously...”
—Victim

“Martin, I really thank the Lord for your ministry it is absolutely awesome and God is using it to save our ministry. I actually read out to the whole meeting yesterday the first letter that you replied to me and it spoke volumes to everyone and gave the leadership some clear direction. This is all very new to them and they honestly did not have a clue how to go forward, but your letter explained the process beautifully, whilst at the same time helped them not to fall into sympathizing with the perpetrator.”—UK

“You can’t realize (or maybe you can) how much your writing means to me. To think that somebody took this much time to respond to me, blows me away! I know I need God to be my healer, but I so need someone right now to tell me I’m okay. Your emails do that for me.”—IN

“Samantha, you have given me great wisdom and support throughout this whole ordeal.”—OH

“I do know that you are one busy couple!! But always remember if you are ever so stressed that you are pulling your hair out—if it wasn’t for your support, guidance, encouragement, love, and friendship through my ordeal—I would not be where I am today mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. The appreciation you deserve for the ministry you provide could never be expressed in words.”—IL

“Words cannot express how much it meant to me to see you and be able to feel safe during worship again. Sometimes all it takes is knowing you are not alone. May God continue to bless your ministry and give you strength in all you do for Him.”—SC

“I will always be thankful for the day God brought you into my life. You give that special care that I have such a hard time finding. I appreciate your efforts.”—WI

“...we are very grateful for THOS, because your ministry serves a very large purpose and one that many victims will benefit from.”—MO
“I have said it before and I will say it again. One thing I admire most about people is an ability to speak the truth in love, even when it hurts. You hit a homerun with the message I needed to hear. I want God to clean house and He has used you, to open up those areas in my life. I can’t thank you enough for all that you have exposed to me. Not just in what is happening in my wife’s life, but mine as well. You really have been one of the main tools that God has used in my life for change.”—OH

“Hello. I was browsing Facebook to see if there was a Hope of Survivors group on here, or anything like that. The Ministry that you are a part of has helped me so much. I believe my mother spoke with you (via e mail) and you sent us some information a few months ago. I just wanted to thank you. I will be emailing you shortly. Thank you again. God Bless you!”—PA

“Thank you so much for your replies, and for sharing your story with me, and for reassuring me that I’m not crazy and that things like this do happen, and that my perceptions could very well have been accurate. I have read the brochures, and they’ve been extremely helpful. In fact I don’t know what I would have done if you weren’t here for me and if those materials weren’t available. I would have been completely alone, and as I’m prone to depression, I just don’t know what would have happened. Honestly I think some women in this position might grow so despondent they would think of hurting themselves. Thank you so much for the work you do in helping people like me, in helping to educate others about clergy abuse. God always finds a way to take something bad and make something good come from it, and this is what He has done through you. Thank you again for everything, I don’t know what I would have done without you.”—OH

“First of all, I wish to thank you for the supportive Bible verses—especially for Ps. 37, which I have already read several times. What a blessing you are to those who have been terribly afflicted as I have. Your advice is uplifting and strengthening, and I can’t thank you enough. I have faith, that I am being sheltered by Him.”—NY

“...just reading your web site and typing up my story has already resulted in a miracle in my heart. I am grateful to have found your web site.”—WA

“I enjoyed reading your story as I related to almost every feeling. I am thankful that God put someone like you in my path. I do not think that it was just coincidence. I just want help getting the garbage out from inside my soul. I want to be able to one day have a normal relationship and family. I’ve done a lot of cleaning up—but there is so much more to go.”—CA

“I’m sorry to hear that your ministry is so busy, because I know that means there are many people in pain, but I am so grateful for the work you do. I don’t know what I would have done without you, and I’m just glad you are willing to continue the ministry. It’s so needed, as most churches seem to be incapable of providing victims with any form of appropriate support.”—AZ
“I just finished reading Steve’s words in HopeSpeak, [January 2008] and I wanted to share with you my overwhelming feelings when I read the last line, “God has used our experience to save more than just ‘one’.” I felt an upheaval in my heart and was so touched by the words that I felt like I was about to break down and cry uncontrollably. Tears came to my eyes and I was overpowered by the feeling to hold onto you both and have a good cry over what happened to you two. What a way to turn a bad situation into what your ministry is today! ... Steve’s words touched me in a way I’ve never been touched before. You two have such a special ministry and I’m thrilled to read how far it has come since C. discovered your web site. That your ministry has expanded worldwide is amazing, and you both were such an integral part of his healing. My wishes for you this new year are that God sees fit to offer your ministry more open doors and for good health. I’m so happy to have met you both... You both hold a special place in my heart.”—MA

“Today, when I came back from school, I found your newsletter and believe me that I didn’t eat and I didn’t even change my clothes before I finished reading it. I didn’t know what The Hope of Survivors means, now I understand. I appreciated you and Steve, your whole work, when we met in Norway and now I have a lot of reasons to appreciate you more. You have a lot of power, and a great heart to help the others. I was really impressed by what I read. I want you to know that I pray for you and the other people who work for THOS. God bless you all.”—Romania

“I have great admiration and appreciation for the ministry the two of you have undertaken, especially knowing a bit about the background that led to the very positive work you are doing to help so many hurting people around the world. You will be in our prayers. Pray for us, as we resume pastoral ministry in the Peoria-Sun City Adventist Church in northwest Phoenix. Though no longer serving on your board, you retain our love, respect, and high esteem as friends. Call on us if we can assist in any practical way.”—Ralph Robertson, (former) Ministerial Director, Northern California Conference

“First off, I would love to thank you for taking the time out of your busy day for me... you don’t even know me, yet you take the time out to read my story and reply even. You assume I am telling the truth and don’t assume I am making this up. I have wanted to tell someone for the longest, but feared no one would believe me. ...You have helped me more than you will ever know...””—NY

“The time spent with you and your husband was very beneficial for the both of us. We had a wonderful time visiting. Being able to tell our story to a couple who was understanding and supportive was an amazing outlet for me. You both were so kind and compassionate to the both of us and it was so uplifting to be able to know that I (we) am not alone in this and that others have dealt with situations like mine successfully. I’ve read through the pamphlets and they are all SO good. I am getting ready to place an order so I can share them. ...Thank you so much for listening to God’s direction in your life and helping people like me. I’ll say it again—you saved my life.”—IL

“Wonderful job! The newsletter [October 2007] was the best ever! You are great. Hope it gets out the need for The Hope of Survivors to continue and how much it is needed. Great paper;”—WA

“The ministry of THOS is so very important to helping those little sheep that Satan has scattered and it breaks my heart to know that many, many churches do not understand what pastoral abuse is and what it isn’t. I see very well—more than ever—a need for all the seminars and conferences you do.”—WV

“The Hope of Survivors web site was literally a ‘God-send’ to me and to my husband. Both of us were betrayed by our “pastor-friend” and found ourselves truly in the wilderness. You are to be commended for the depth and breadth of the ministry you offer. For victim/survivors, there really is no such thing as a local support group you can turn to in order to help minimize the shock and dismay of this particular trauma/abuse. Your web site became my/our support group, especially for my husband in hearing Steve’s story and realizing how all-too-common spouses are part of such a web. Often in the evenings, I would find great solace in reading the sad-but-very-similar stories of abuse and feel like I was not alone. Over time, your resources have helped our church understand the complexity of this issue. Your calm demeanor and sense of being ‘ever-present’ were affirming and healing to us. And, naming that this is ‘never an affair’ is extremely helpful, especially early on! Our lives have been ‘saved’ by God’s grace working through you to reach out to others! Thank you for being an authentic and reliable witness to the Gospel.”—B., Maine

“I am writing to you to let you know how you have helped my wife and myself get through the trauma of CSA. Early on, your web site and your emails kept us going when all was in turmoil. You helped us to understand what it was that we were going through when we did not understand ourselves. For me, as the husband, just having another husband who had gone through this was a blessing. Steve understood what I was going through and guided me through the turmoil of CSA. Your web site and educational materials were answers to our prayers in helping not only myself and my wife understand CSA, but also letting us help others in our church family to understand what was happening. Without you there would be no hope for survivors. Thanks for being there.—P., Maine

“I love your words. They are like a soothing oil comforting my soul in this spiritually parched desert in which I find myself.”—A Survivor

“Thank you for sharing with me and being honest. Yes, the more time goes on and the more I learn and the more I speak with you...well, the more I see the truth of all of this. Truly, I don’t think you realize how needed you are and your ministry and how much you are a blessing to me...I can’t even imagine how many people you must have helped.”—A Survivor

“I want you guys to know that the work you do is invaluable. Although I am still immersed in the pain and regret of my actions, I can see how many others have experienced what I am going through and that makes me glad to know that I will be healed and whole one day.”—A Survivor

“Thanks for checking up on me. I don’t know what I’d do without your support. It’s amazing to me what you’re doing. The Church is rich in tradition and devotional aesthetics, and there’s nothing wrong with that. But, what you’re doing is more Christian than anything I’ve seen the Church do for a long time.”—A Survivor

“I am so sorry it’s taken me so long to thank you for your heartfelt and beautiful email. It was just so refreshing to hear from someone who sees the truth, and has had experience in this area...Everyone seems so blind—I want to scream. That is why I can’t tell you how wonderful it was to hear your words of encouragement and wise advice...I have copied your email to the members in my family who are standing on the side of God’s Word in this situation. Your words have been a blessing to us all. Thank you so much for taking time out of your busy schedule to reply to me. I have no way to fully express how much it meant to hear a voice of reason, filled with Godly wisdom. You are a good person. Finally, I want to thank you so very much for taking such a painful experience in your own life, and using it to create a ministry to help others see a bit of light in a very dark place. God bless you and your ministry.”—A Survivor

“Words cannot express how thankful, to God, I am to have you to turn to with all of this.”—A Survivor

“Thank you for your messages of today and yesterday...they have been inspiring and a blessing. I need all the help I can get right now...”—A Survivor

“I really want to thank you for your web site...I wish I had looked for it a long time ago. Your site really hit the nail on the head concerning the fact that an affair happens between equals, NOT between a clergyman and a parishioner, no matter what.... Until I found your site, I felt so very alone in this.... What you’re doing with your web site is truly God’s work. I know that that is what Jesus had in mind for His Church.”—A Survivor

“I look at your web site daily for a bit of encouragement and a reminder that what happened was wrong, regardless of the response of the church authorities. Without your web site and kind words, I’d be lost.”—A Survivor

“I’d love to be a part of your ministry in any way, shape or form. You’ve done so much to save my life, my marriage, my relationship with God... Prior to finding you I had AdvocateWeb, and they do still help with their online messages of hope, but your ministry is personal and one-on-one, something a new victim of CSA can’t get enough of as they’re struggling with the shock and wondering if they can even live another day in their newly shattered world.”—A Survivor

“I will never forget my first conversation with you Samantha...you brought me hope.”—A Survivor

“First, I want to thank you for all the information on the site! Thank you for this ministry! You were a blessing to me! I hope more people find you!!!!”—A Survivor

“I wish to thank you very much for your web site on abuse. I am not a Christian; until recently, I had lost all faith in God, but your site really gives me hope. Once again, thank you for the information on your site, as I said, it truly does give me hope.”—A Survivor

“Thank you for providing this help to the victims. I am the full-time pastor of the Cohutta Georgia Seventh-day Adventist Church and Senior Chaplain for the Dalton Georgia Police Department. I commend you for your work and believe that we must do even more to assure that children and adults are safe from predators whether they be pastors or laypersons. We have hidden our heads in the sand way too long.”—Elder Jim Cox, Pastor & Certified Master Law Enforcement Chaplain
“In addition to giving thanks to you for your help and support, I have to always give thanks to my friend. She was the one who got on the Internet and found your web site. If not for her, the guilt I was feeling would have overpowered me and led me to suicide. I did not realize anything about clergy abuse or that it was not my fault. Your web site changed everything. I’ll never forget my friend calling and saying to check out the web site because she said when she read it she got chills and thought, “This is it. This is what happened to you.” She happens to have been a good friend of the pastor and his wife, too, so it was hard for her, but she reached out to help me. So many people were led by God to help me and most of all my fiancée, in his love, was able to stick with me and all the things he would say to me would mirror what you would say, and he hadn’t even read your information at the beginning, so it was coming from his heart. God is great and I give him thanks for what you and Steve are doing. I am so blessed!”—Midwest Survivor

“Great email. You read my words carefully and responded with steadfast support. It is refreshing to be heard so clearly.”—L., Illinois

“I am just so very happy to have found you right now. I have to say your responses feel like balm to my soul because I can tell you listen to everything I say and that you understand what I am sharing. I really appreciate the love you have already shown to us. I am very glad that I went to your web site and admire the fact that you have done this and want to make your pain help other people.”—D., Ohio

“Thanks again for your prayers & concern. It actually feels comforting to know someone out there understands about the effects of such pastoral abuse & to have someone show concern! Thank You! It means a lot!”—Survivor, SE U.S.

“I can’t tell you how much it means to me to know that you’re there. I pray for a peaceful existence one day, as you seem to have, and to be at peace with myself with God’s help. I pray for that so much.”—K., Virginia

“You are very sweet and kind. I appreciate your encouragement.”—A., Florida

“I thank God that you’re my messenger. You have no idea how much peace I have about my decision, and how much you have blessed me. You have helped me to see what the Lord’s will was from the beginning, I knew deep in my heart this is what He wanted me to do from the start, but I was letting worldly issues guide me, not the Holy Spirit that lives in me. Thanks so much for being here for me...I know that I’m in for a long haul and a rough road ahead and it is a comfort to know that you will be there for me through it all.”—J., New Mexico

“I am so thankful God put you in my life. You have been a great blessing to me. I can talk to you like you were my sister. I do feel very comfortable sharing my thoughts and feelings with you. I really feel you listen to what I am saying and when I tell you I am in pain you don’t try to brush me off by saying just get over it. I am thankful that when I sent my story to you, you didn’t just delete it. I am also very thankful for when I have talked to you by phone you always end our phone call with a prayer. That has meant a great deal to me. Thank you.”—M., Georgia

“The Hope of Survivors is a ministry that provides good information about CSA, with an added personal touch. Samantha, who corresponds with the women who have been abused, has e-mailed me, sent me books and brochures, and even a birthday card! She has given me hope during the darkest time I have ever known, as only a fellow CSA survivor can. She has also provided me with the names of two other CSA survivors; women I have become close friends with thru e-mails and phone conversations. Her brochures about CSA are the best I’ve seen; a crime that is often shrouded in confusion is brought to light with gentle truth and compassionate mercy.”—T., Ohio

“I found The Hope of Survivors via the International Candlelight Vigil website in October of 2003. Since visiting The Hope of Survivors’ web site initially, I have come to know Samantha Nelson and her and her husband’s story, and I also have experienced the glory of hope through The Hope of Survivors’ mission. I’m an adult female victim of clergy sexual abuse. It is a very, very painful recovery but The Hope of Survivors has supported me emotionally and in other ways and I know I’m not alone. I can truly say that the ministry of The Hope of Survivors has allowed me to grow spiritually, realizing that the pain and anguish I have experienced at the hands of my former minister was not the will of God, and that God is there to help me heal. I’m very thankful for their ministry as it offers true hope for healing from the devastating effects of clergy sexual abuse. My hope is that The Hope of Survivors’ ministry continues to grow, educating and offering hope to women, congregations of all denominations, clergy and church officials.”—K., Virginia

“I just thought of something the other day and thought I’d mention it. I have noticed such an incredible release in my life from the past—I remember thinking, okay—it takes about 4 years or so and then you’re completely healed. (That’s still a long time! And a lot of life has been lost or strained due to a bad choice by the perp. But I’ve really felt different the past couple months, and I think this is key: you told me to get rid of everything in my house that I could—things he gave me, memorabilia... I actually had a photo album devoted entirely to church people and events, and it was under my bed. Well, I got rid of that, the ring he gave me, all the papers for the attorney—I put it out of the house. What a difference it made—and I didn’t even consciously think of it—I just put it together the other day—had an “aha” moment—“so THAT’s why I’ve been feeling so much better!” So keep telling women that, who come to you for help—get rid of everything—every reminder of him... every gift he gave. There’s really something to that.”—T., Ohio

“Thank you so much for your web site. You have no idea what a great help it was for me. It really explains everything so well. I was in an abusive relationship with my pastor for a year and a half. I am so thankful you wrote about the confusion because I felt very confused throughout, because he kept saying this was from God... and I was to become his next wife, the one God ordained for him. He used scripture continually through this whole ordeal. Scripture is hard for me to read now. Thank God for your ministry. What a blessing to others! You see, I don’t think women see this as abuse, they don’t understand. But thanks to you and your ministry and web site, it is so true, and everything makes sense now.”—A Survivor
