Dear Hope of Survivors Family,

Here are some of the incredible highlights from our recent trip that we pray will encourage you as you see how God is blessing this ministry, which you support so faithfully.

Upon arriving in Romania late Monday, we hit the ground running. We hosted a premiere viewing of the documentary Call It Anything But Love!, a film about clergy sexual abuse that was released with Romanian subtitles. At the close of the viewing there was an appeal made for someone to help provide counseling assistance to the victims from Romania. God wonderfully placed upon the heart of Laura Fierbinteanu to say she would be willing to assist this ministry and use her position as a licensed counselor to be that very important link in the healing chain.

Joining us for the documentary screening was a couple from the United Kingdom who have been praying for God to direct them in starting a branch of The Hope of Survivors ministry in their country. While currently there is support for victims in the UK, there is an ever-increasing need for a greater personal presence to minister to victims across the United Kingdom. Please join us as we pray for God's blessing on this special couple, Andrea & Anthony Shipwright, who are forging forward into a very needed place.

A few days later we traveled to Stupini to conduct an educational seminar for pastors and church leaders on various types of abuse that take place, including clergy sexual abuse. The conference began with a showing of the documentary Call It Anything But Love! and was followed by a question and answer session. It is always interesting to see what types of questions will come up when the topic of sexual abuse among the clergy is discussed. We were thankful God led in a healthy discussion on this important topic and enabled us to answer some very pertinent, yet difficult, questions. We were thankful as we saw Him open the hearts of His leaders to embrace the work of The Hope of Survivors and grasp their role in helping to support victims of abuse.

The following week was spent in Bistrita, in the northern part of the country, to finalize some of the details for setting up the Romanian division’s organizational headquarters. We often take for granted what modern technology and communication has provided in a free market... society, yet that privilege is not so readily available in other countries. We offered many prayers that week for God's help and guidance to move through the maze of bureaucracy and red tape during this process. During the week we visited Samantha's family in Rustior and were blessed with amazing hospitality and more wonderful food than we possibly could have enjoyed in a week's time. Steve was also invited to speak for the opening of a week of prayer at the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Ocnița (see http://www.thehopeofsurvivors.com/news_notes/A_Tender_Shepherd.php).

On Saturday Steve was the guest speaker at the Bistrița Seventh-day Adventist Church. We were very blessed as God touched the hearts of His people through the message, and we look forward to returning again to present a series on healing to the church and community in the future.

The last week we were in Romania we took a few days to rest in the mountains at Sinaia and were thankful for the beauty of God's creation in this wonderful place. As the week ended, we traveled back to Bucharest to worship at the Balta Alba Seventh-day Adventist Church, where Steve presented a message on faith in Jesus, and we spent the remainder of the time with a very special family who always greets us at the airport when we arrive and sees us off when we depart, no matter what time of day or night it may be. Their love and friendship is greatly appreciated and binds us close to their hearts.

It is always a mix of emotions when we travel home. We certainly miss our Romanian family and wish we could spend more time with the ones we love, yet we know God still has work for us to do at home and we miss our family here too. We are grateful to be used as His instrument of healing to others wherever He leads us.

God bless you,
Samantha Nelson

Why Does Having a Title Give Pastors the License to Do Whatever They Want?
By Douglas Goodman

Why does having a title give pastors a license to do whatever they want and not be held accountable? You don't think this is true? Well let's look at the evidence. In the UK and America you will find many examples of politicians who resigned because they were found to be involved in something that brought their integrity into question such as extra marital affairs or swindling funds. Even company executives who are caught out for engaging in immoral practices have had to resign from their positions. No one said "he who is without sin cast the first stone" or anything like that. Knowing scripture should make you wiser but instead people use scripture to justify their foolishness sometimes. Read more...

"You and Steve started us on a healthier path of healing than we were headed-in. Your coming brought back people (for your event) who had left the church. The event also brought healing to those who have stayed. ...Your presentation also helped people to reflect on the boundaries that need to be created to prevent such an event from happening in the future. This is a lot of value for this ministry (looking forward), too."--West Coast

Why Does Having a Title Give Pastors the License to Do Whatever They Want?—Douglas Goodman

Why does having a title give pastors a license to do whatever they want and not be held accountable? You don’t think this is true? Well let’s look at the evidence. In the UK and America you will find many examples of politicians who resigned because they were found to be involved in something that brought their integrity into question such as extra marital affairs or swindling funds. Even company executives who are caught out for engaging in immoral practices have had to resign from their positions.

No one said “he who is without sin cast the first stone” or anything like that. Knowing scripture should make you wiser but instead people use scripture to justify their foolishness sometimes.

Now let us take a look at the church system. I have been in a church where the pastor was sentenced to three and a half years in prison for indecent assault and perverting the course of justice (he was also accused of rape but found not guilty). Did I leave? No! I was there for seven years. So I know what I’m writing about. I too defended my pastor and cheered when he went back into the pulpit. So before you accuse me of judging and quote another scripture out of context, please note that I have taken the log out of my eye. I can now point out the spec that is in your eye if you are in the same position. Matthew 7:1-5 doesn’t mean that we shouldn’t speak out when we see something that is wrong and detrimental to the Body of Christ. It simply means that if you are practising the same sin you cannot judge your brother or sister for it, because that same measure of judgement would obviously apply to you. That would also make you a hypocrite.

However, when you have repented of this sin (taken the log out of your eye). You will be in the position to help your brother or sister overcome the same sin that you overcame. We are suppose to judge (not condemn) one another and encourage each other to do good works. You are to judge what is right using the word of God (1 Cor 5:9-13, 1 Cor 10:15, Luke 12:57.1 Cor 6:3-5, John 7:24). I would rather my brother and sister judge me first so that I could repent before God judges me for it.

So why do I say that having a title gives pastors a license to do whatever they want? Well imagine a pastor has been found guilty of abusing some of the women in the church. He even goes to prison for it so the world has judged him. But what does the church do? They pray for his release while he is in prison, comparing his ‘plight’ to that of Paul and Silas who were also imprisoned (but for the gospel’s sake, not for wrongdoing!). As soon as he is out of prison (it is common in the UK for a convict to serve half their sentence if they behave well in prison) there is applause at his return. While people are singing praises to God they notice the pastor is back, they begin to clap and shout for joy that he has returned (forgetting that they were praising God a minute ago). Do people expect him to step down? After all, even in the secular world they recognise when a politician in this position should step down. No, in church when a pastor shows himself as not being qualified to be an overseer, the people do NOT require him to step down. He is allowed to get right back into preaching even when he hasn’t been away for a significant period of time. I don’t have to imagine that scenario because that is what happened in my former church.

Eddie Long is accused of using his position to take advantage of young boys in the congregation and having sexual relations with them. The law cannot intervene because they were of age at the time (although at the time they were alleged only to be 17 and 18 years of age). He doesn’t admit guilt but he pays them money as compensation. Doesn’t sound like the actions of an innocent man. Of course people’s first reaction is to assume the boys are lying because thinking about the facts would be too unnerving for them. It’s easier to stay in a state of ignorance. He stays away for a few weeks and he is back preaching again with rapturous applause at his return. He even allows himself to be made an idol of and crowned King. But what do the people say? Well “I’m sure he didn’t mean for that ‘Rabbi’ to crown him as king. He didn’t know what that man was going to do”. He only apologises for it not because his church held him accountable (no, they cheered while this abomination was going on) but because the world spoke out against it! If it was up to the church we would turn a blind eye and carry on as ‘normal’.

Jamal Bryant is found out to be an adulterer and he even proceeds to compare himself to King David and says “He’s the man!. The congregation buy it. Cheering and giving praise to him with the pride evident on his face! Again he is back preaching in the pulpit, he continues to be an overseer when he clearly isn’t bearing the fruit that the bible says a leader should have. But hey he has a ‘title’ (pastor, prophet, evangelist, doctor, apostle, bishop etc), that means he has a license to do whatever he wants and not be held accountable. If these ‘pastors’ were held accountable they would no longer be in positions of leadership.

I recently watched a youtube video about a pastor who went to prison for abusing children. (See: Protests Against Sex Offender Pastor BAC...)

He is on the sex offenders register! What do the congregation do? They allow him back into the pulpit and continue to believe that he is qualified to be a pastor. What are some of the famous lines they give: “he who is without sin cast the first stone”. Do the people who quote this even know where this is written in the bible? Jesus said this because in those days adultery was punishable by death. It was common practice to stone a woman to death if she was caught committing adultery. If you see someone with stones in their hands then by all means quote that scripture. Do not quote scripture out of context to justify foolishness. Nobody was talking about stoning anyone to death. These people have been taught by the pastors they defend to quote scriptures out of context to justify their behaviour and to ignore the pleas of others whose eyes have been opened to these things. They have been trained for years to ignore people who are trying to get through to them and talk sense to them. "Oh that person is trying to take you out of your destiny", "Don't listen to gossips", "These people are destiny stealers", "They are bitter", "Just focus on Jesus". Let's not even mention, 'touch not my anointed!' Another scripture taken out of context that is mentioned a few times in the bible simply in reference to physically harming or even killing. This has never been in reference to speaking out against something that you know is wrong. You know this because God's word says so.

A pastor abuses children and they are still not called to step down. Instead they are welcomed back in the church to preach and the children have to go in a separate room elsewhere. A paedophile pastor is welcomed back into the pulpit while the children are thrown out. And by the way they did not put the children in a separate place because they had enough sense to do this. They did this because the world has laws that say that a sex offender should not be around children. Wow, the world has standards but this church doesn't. I'm sure if they had their way that pastor would be back preaching in the pulpit to both the children and the adults. The pastor in my former church certainly isn't separated from the children. But if that man applied for a job in the secular world that involved working with children (or vulnerable adults) he would not be allowed to work in such positions. I know as a school teacher that you are checked thoroughly for any criminal records. If you have any criminal records you cannot be employed as a teacher or any position involving young people, let alone a record for a sexual offence. So don't sound surprised when I say that being a pastor gives you a license to do whatever you want. If abusing children doesn't cause the congregation to speak out and not stand for it I don't know what will! So what does a pastor have to do for people to require him to step down?

By the way saying that these pastors should step down is NOT the same as condemning them. They can still be restored gently back into fellowship but the bible does not say that they can be restored back into their position as leaders. There is a big difference. (Galatians 6:1).

James 3:1 (KJV)

My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

What fruit are they bearing?

1 Timothy 3 (NKJV)

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a bishop,[a] he desires a good work. 2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, of good behaviour, hospitable, able to teach; 3 not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money,[b] but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; 4 one who rules his own house well, having his children in submission with all reverence 5 (for if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?); 6 not a novice, lest being puffed up with pride he fall into the same condemnation as the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good testimony among those who are outside, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

1 Peter 5:2 (NKJV)

2 Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly,[a] not for dishonest gain but eagerly;

Titus 1:5-9

5 For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you—6 if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination. 7 For a bishop[b] must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, 8 but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled, 9 holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

Acts 20:28 (NKJV)

28 Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God[a] which He purchased with His own blood.

1 Corinthians 9:27

27 But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.

It is the Holy Spirit that appoints overseers not man. It doesn't matter how many qualifications or titles a person has. That doesn't automatically make them a leader. It is God that chooses them. If it is God that has chosen them they will bear good fruit! God does not choose adulterers and child molesters to lead his people. The standard God sets for overseers is high, let us not lower it to a standard that is even lower than that of the world. This happens because of our own idolatry, laziness (to study the word) or desire to live in some sort of fanstasy. This is serious and if you really loved your pastor you would pray that God grants him repentance and hold him accountable for his behaviour. We should ask God for wisdom concerning these matters (James 1:5).

"I benefitted from Samantha's counselling several years ago, and am pleased to report I am doing very well now. I have donated to THOS a few times... I read that the Canadian branch is raising funds to apply for incorporation, and I was wondering if I can direct a donation to that."—Canada

"I want to thank you again for your help and support. I honestly don't know where are lives would be without THOS. Surely God's hand is in your ministry. I know we need more time to rebuild our lives. I feel I am ready to help THOS at anytime you may need me."—VA

"I thank you for having this ministry for so many of us. It has opened my eyes and heart. I have discovered strength I never knew I had. I look forward to the positive change that is ahead of me. Thank you."—KS

"God directed me to you and your amazing and wonderful help ...You have been so valuable to my recovery as you know what it is like to cope with this. Even the councillor said that I appeared far better than he had thought I would be and I told him that it was because of my dearest friend [Wendy at THOS] the other side of the world who has been helping me. ...you were there when I was at my lowest ..."—South Wales

"Thank you both so much for all of your support for us. Always know that God used your ministry, The Hope of Survivors, to deliver me out of such bondage and abuse from my pastor! I hope and pray that God will abundantly bless THOS and Steve and you so others will be set free too. The Truth is setting me free and I am healing by His Word and Grace. After my time of healing, I would love to work with your ministry however God would like to use me."—AL

"...Had it not been for Samantha and Hope of Survivors, as well as my sponsor, who lives not far from me and counsels the Spanish community, I would not have received the healing I needed from God. Most people would not even want to hear something as sinister as a pastor doing something you would never expect him to treat a woman who wants more than anything is trust. I had written a book about my emotional healing from God and named it "From caterpillar to butterfly" before the pastor's abuse, and wish I had never written it. I took it out of anymore print. Now the book's title needs to be "From trust to lust." I thank you all at HOPE [The Hope of Survivors], and I pray God's blessings on all of you. I know every city should be blessed with a HOPE counseling center. This is a type of abuse that is silent and leaves the victim without hope and healing. Samantha saved my life and helped me so much with her encouraging emails and wisdom and knowledge she has gained in helping many women heal when she feels so alone and has lost not only her pastor, but also the women in her church who did not believe her, and eventually had to leave the church she had worshipped and prayed in so often. May God bless HOPE in all ways and bring healing to all women who need so badly for someone to believe her and trust when no one else will hear her cries for help. The Hope of Survivors website is so helpful in knowing others have experienced the pain, hurt, shame, guilt, but through HOPE was able to survive and become a victor. God will someday bring vengeance upon the sin and it is not our place to try to get revenge. Thank you Lord God for providing HOPE to so many hurting women. I am a VICTOR not a VICTIM!"—TX

"The conference was really helpful. I'm so thankful for THOS; can't imagine how lost we would be without this God-given resource. We hope to be able to bless and give more to the ministry in the future. God bless your ministry!"—IA

"I did find the conference valuable. ...Though I know that it was not my fault, I still have shame around it. But coming to the conference in a safe place is a big step in my acceptance and another step forward in my healing. You and your organization are so needed. Thank you for having the courage to bring this out in the open and help us victims become survivors."

"I got the most benefit from hearing the testimonies... Every new story helps me understand my experience better and affirms my experience. My appreciation to Dr. Weber for acknowledging clearly how devastating this experience is; to all for making this such a safe environment—a truly safe environment, and for the courageous dedication you show every day in this work."—CA

"I really appreciate the conference and the website. Hearing the experiences helped me identify my personal feelings and helped in my support."—AL

"Hearing the testimonies was extremely helpful because we were able to hear about the specific tactics used by a predator, as well as the impact the abuse had on you and Steve."—NE

"Great conference, great information!"—IA
"It was amazing to hear the similarities and be reminded this was not my fault. We are so thankful for the thorough info/website and the active communication with the staff."—IA

"I thank God for your ministry to bring healing through our Lord and bring comfort to the pain of abuse."—AL

"Thank you for all you do. We wouldn't be together if you weren't there."—Anonymous

"Your organization is truly a gift from God to us. It has answered so many questions and truly given us hope."—IA

"I found the booklet very informative. In it I found answers to a number of questions I had hovering in the back of my mind. I will be mailing out the other copies so that spiritual leaders, and associated professionals, may be educated and, hopefully, better able to assist survivors in a sensitive and supportive way. Thank you so much Wendy, for continuing to be available to listen when I need to share. I have faith that out of all this, God has great things in store for the New Year ahead. I am going to be looking back at the website to see what ways I can contribute to THOS."—MA

"THOS has always helped me give the proper language to what I experienced."—TX

"You and Steve have shown God to me in a way that no one else ever has—as though before, all these people were telling me about this "awesome person who loved me" but you guys actually took the time to introduce Him to me personally. There aren't words to thank you for that..."—NY

"Certainly use any part of my e-mail. I can't say enough of how very thankful I am to you Samantha. You were the one who finally made sense of what was going on in my life. Your willingness to respond to my e-mails even daily was so important to me. I did not have another person in my life who was so attentively caring for my wounded soul."—WI

"Thank you so much for all the work you do. It's been a lifeline to me."—UK

"I will stand with you in prayer and against the enemy. He will NOT win! We have the victory and we will maintain that victory!"—IN

"I know you are doing a wonderful and much-needed work! I am not surprised to hear of Satan's attacks. I will certainly pray for you, and please keep up the work of helping victims of clergy sexual abuse!"—CO

"I haven't spoken to you in quite awhile. I am in tears as I read your email. My heart is soooo heavy for you and The Hope of Survivors. You were there to help me when I REALLY needed to hear the voice of truth and you were there beyond that and I know that you are still there if I need you. And I am only one. I can't imagine what it requires to do what you do for each and every little voice that musters up the courage to call never knowing as their story unfolds, what the battle ahead will require of THOS."—Survivor

"You can count on me to pray diligently for you and the others at THOS as you are under attack. I am also available to talk to anyone that may need it (including you!). You know that I am a licensed counselor for nearly 20 years. I can also make a small, wish it was big, monetary donation to THOS if you let me know how to do that. If you can think of any other way that I can help you please let me know."—FL

"Thank you for sharing this email of general but plain expression of your need for support and prayer. I have had you all on my heart a lot—and I will continue to pray. I strongly believe that the battle you all face is because you dare to help those who have been shackled by Satan and his agents to escape the chains of abuse and death. This is no easy work. I have often thought, as I share with you my burden and prayer requests, that you know I need prayer as much, or more, than I do. Know my heart will continue to pray for God to uphold and bless you with his abundant mercy. May He allow the bread you have cast on the waters to come back on every wave and feed your souls. May He allow you to reap a harvest of good in time for the beautiful seeds of hope, peace, freedom and comfort that you have planted. And while you wait for these times of refreshing, may His Spirit give you light in the darkness, and songs in your night."—MI

"We lift you, all those who serve and victims up in prayer. Your ministry was one of the two earthly supports that God gave us to survive & heal and we will never forget that. I pray for your healing, for peace and for God to fortify you and others who are serving in such an important ministry. Thank you for what you are doing and may God lift you up."—FL

"Your ministry is much needed. It has given me much courage to deal with my ordeal. The devil has been extremely busy lately—he knows he is running out of time. I guess you can use him as an indicator of your value to God by the torment he inflicts on you. :) You have my love and appreciation for your dedication to our Lord, and doubtless the same from any other of the Survivors who have been helped by your ministry."—Australia

"I can tell you now that, had it not been for your personal talk with me, I would never have gotten over the misconduct my pastor displayed toward me and that made me feel, along with his wife, that I was the one who caused it all. It is so sad that the victim is blamed for the misconduct of their pastor."—TX

"I know God has called you for His purpose. Recently on THOS website I read "How to "Tell it to the Church" —Christ's Neglected Commandment" by Martin Weber. What a powerful message! And such a contrast to what I

"I just read your Newsletter. I just want to encourage you and Steve to push on. God is with you, and you and your volunteers are doing a wonderful and very important work with THOS. Even though, at the moment, I cannot support you financially, I will keep you in my prayers. I will never forget those years, when I was struggling, not only with my past, but also with the lack of friendliness in the church I was at. When I e-mailed you from that Christian bookstore in Germany, you always answered my e-mails straight away—even when I didn't expect an answer. You were there for me in a time when things were very confusing for me. I want to thank you for that, and again, I want to encourage you and Steve to keep on doing the work with THOS that you do so well. God bless you...”—Germany

"My prayers are with you. I know you asked for our prayers for THOS ministry—and you have them! But I am also praying particularly for you, for quick healing from shingles and for God's encouragement and strength. I am so grateful for everything you do. Your ministry has made a huge, healing difference in my life. God bless you and Steve!”—CA

"Samantha, I know you face a great amount of stress and so many people need you—thank you from the very bottom of my heart. I would have never been strong enough to face that testimony without the guidance, love, support, and prayers you have given me over the past 3 years.”—IL

"We are lifting you up in prayer—extra. We just finished praying for you in our family worship. We know you are on the front lines in your specific ministry. Satan would like to stop what you do because hearts are being healed and sin is being revealed. May God continue to sustain and bless you both as well as your efforts. The work He began, He will finish in truth and righteousness.”—AL

"I will forever be thankful for the support I received from Samantha personally several years ago when I contacted Hope of Survivors. The ongoing counseling from Samantha was the starting point of my recovery. I had been abused by a Dr. that I worked with who was also a very respected spiritual leader in our church and community. The confusion that I had experienced for more than four years had me so entangled. Samantha helped me to see the situation for what it was. Oftentimes what she said was hard for me to accept. I was very alone and ashamed of what was going on in my life. I was very manipulated by this individual and had an allegiance to him that was so hard to describe when I look back at that time. I knew that if I contacted Samantha she would always respond with Godly advise. I do not know if I would be at this same point if she had not so faithfully supported me through all of her e-mail.

God has done a good work in my life. I have not spoke with Samantha since she resigned the job of counseling but I would like her to know how well I am doing. ...What Satan thought would destroy me and my family made us all stronger. I would like to support this great ministry. I have shared with so many about all that they have done for me. May God continue to give each of the support staff the strength needed for this ministry.”—WI

"I will keep all of those on staff and volunteers in my prayers. What you did for me I will never forget. I know I would not be here if not for your strong opposition to Satan in my trying time of abuse and recovery” —IA

"I do know God is in control . . . of my life, of your life, of The Hope of Survivors, etc. I also know that Satan is working harder than ever to steal, kill and destroy and, unfortunately, he has found a way into our churches through weak-minded men who yield much power over those under their leadership. As you said, he'll do everything he can to keep you from destroying his work by exposing the evil he is orchestrating. I will pray for you and your ministry. I'm all for hope and healing, but there's got to be honesty, too, and that's a challenge when you're dealing with something that so many try to hide. I wish you the best as you continue to fight the good fight.”—AR

"Keep fighting, Samantha! You can't see us but you are not alone. You have sisters standing with you and some brothers too! Keep up the good work!”—TX

"...The Hope of Survivors is carrying on a much-needed work among a group that currently has no official recognition in the church organization, at least not that I am aware of. My belief is that this is the work that the Lord has asked you and Steve to carry on for Him. Although, you will pass through trials and temptations, He will guide you and bless you. As you know, I have prayed for you and your ministry on numerous occasions and I will talk to the Lord again about your present situation. Blessings to you and Steve and The Hope of Survivors.””—MO

"I've seen a number of websites for survivors, but yours is exceptional!””—MN

"I feel that I have come to a place of healing and peace. I have laid down my fear and pain and have taken up the hope and joy in my relationship with the Lord. Any lingering thoughts or possible future problems don't have as much power to hurt or consume my thoughts anymore. I continue to give thanks to you [Heather] and Hope of Survivors for all the help you have given helping me understand what happened and for your continuing prayers and thoughtful guidance. As you have blessed me, I will continue to bless Hope of Survivors with a monthly contribution so that you may help others out there who have suffered from clergy sexual misconduct. I will continue to keep you in my prayers and Hope of Survivors and if it is God's will try to use my experience to help others however He leads. May God's blessing be with you all.””—MD
"I was so excited to have found The Hope of Survivors’ website and a way to "speak" to someone that I failed to look over the entire website. There's plenty there for me to read and so far it has all been very helpful. ...and most of what I was trying to ask or express is found on the website. Thanks so much for your time and caring."—VA

"From a recent blog on THOS, I have written a rough version of my story at the hands of my Pastor, please find it attached. I thought mine was such a rare occurrence in the S.D.A. Church and it was only when I found THOS that I realized mine is not so unique as I had feared, unfortunately. ...I want people to be aware. Knowledge can be strength!"—Australia

"May God bless your ministry. I think this is going on in the church all the time, and someone needs to speak out. You have a ministry second to none."—Pastor, South Africa

"Thank you for your kind assistance and prayers. I often visit the website for information and encouragement. It is a true blessing. I pray that you continue this work."—MD

"I hope you still remember me [from] way back [in] 2007! Praise God! Now, I can say that now I'm one of the survivors! Thank you for your ministry. Praise God for your ministry. God has used you to make my broken life whole again! Pray for us as we continue to love God with all our hearts and follow Him always! Hope to be able to support your ministry soon! From the bottom of my heart, thank you so much!"—Survivor, Philippines

"My wife is one of the victims associated with this mess in Pella, Iowa. We truly need help over here. If someone does not commit suicide over this whole ordeal I will be very surprised. On a side note...your website has been very helpful. We read it daily. The articles associated with this website have been very helpful and we have forwarded them on to many people within our community. Can someone please respond to this...I don't know how much longer I can hold it together. Thank you."—Survivor, IA

"I am one of the four victims that was manipulated by this sexual predator. This website has been a true answer to prayer and blessing for myself, husband, family and friends. Thank you for your blog entry...God have mercy on us all! I need to process the info you shared—you shall hear from me again. God bless your work!"—Survivor, IA

"Please be encouraged to know, without your help, I fear I would not have made it. Your telephone calls opened my eyes to what had happened with Pastor M. ...Truly, God worked through your ministry to me and I know to so many others. I am so sorry for any hate mail you have received. Look to the Lord for strength and perseverance!"—Survivor, IA

"It has been a long time since we've spoken but you and THOS often run through my mind and are often in my prayers. I'll never stop saying Thank You for doing what you do. Having your hand there always open and extended to me to grab onto whenever I needed to as I pulled myself out of the sludge of the pit I had fallen into with a troubled man in a dangerous position was sometimes the strongest tie I had to truth and healing, though we've never set eyes on each other."—Survivor, FL

"I am an attorney representing a girl who suffered abuse by her Youth Pastor at the age of 16. We found your site and it has been of great help and comfort to my client. I would like any information you have or could share so that my client(s) can interact with other survivors and get help moving on. The church never apologized to the family, said it had no way of knowing such a thing would occur again, and the congregation and clergy have turned against them. The church did not offer any counseling, support, or legal help with the prosecution. The entire family is broken and suffering. I appreciate all the help you can offer via survivor support. Thank you very much for having this site on the Internet. It has already helped the family greatly, as the church's reaction has stunned them, and they feel lost, at fault, and guilty."—Attorney, FL

"I just now watched Issues and Answers #148 on THOS website. You are lovely, and I was so deeply touched by everything both you and Steve had to say. Everything from your personal experience, to the empathy you share for others. I'm further touched by how universal the guilt and shame is for those who suffer through these abuse issues; thankful that there is this ministry to reach and out and offer this lovely, Christ-centered hope and compassion. I've known about your compassion for some time now, but sometimes is just strikes me in a fresh and powerful way."—OR

"I love reading the monthly newsletter and keeping abreast of all the growth and lives that are being changed due to The Hope of Survivors."—MO

"Thank you for your kind and encouraging words. They are apples of gold in settings of silver to me."—FL

"This information will be very useful to me as a pastor and family life educator."—Pastor, TX

"You [Arlagene] have been an amazing help and support to us... Thank you for the great work you're doing. You have been a great blessing to us."—Australia

“I’ve been abused; and have been helped by Shyleene Rosado for about a year. I’m still trying to heal, God has been faithful, and I’m not working this year, due to a depression. I would love to help translating for this ministry that has been used by God to reach me and take me out of the darkest hole ever. I think I would be of help in translating from English to Spanish. It would be my pleasure and my honor.”—Maria [Latino Division Testimonial]

“I don’t know what I would have done without your ministry. Through the Internet, you have provided help and healing to me and my family. Thank you!!! ♥”—Victim via THOS on Facebook

“I am so grateful to you [Heather] for “entering into my world” and responding to my email. Thank you. It wasn’t until my husband stumbled upon The Hope of Survivors and we both read everything on the site that I came to see that what happened in this scenario was truly abusive. ...Please know how grateful I am to have someone to dialog with on this. I don’t think any of my friends would understand; in fact, one I confided in called it an ‘emotional affair,’ but it was The Hope of Survivors that confirmed to me it was anything but—it was abuse.”—NC

“Words are not enough to express what your ministry has done for me when I was at the lowest point in my life, but I am still going to say thank you. I am also looking forward to being a volunteer with The Hope of Survivors, it is the right thing for me to do.”—NJ

“So great to see you guys are going to be in GEORGIA!!! :) I hope all is well w/you and w/the ministry. I still think of you from time to time and am still deeply grateful for your help in time of great need. I’ll never forget staring at my computer screen in almost disbelief of what I was reading as I searched your website...that was when I was still grappling to believe that what I had experienced was truly abuse and NOT my fault. Praise God for His chasing after me and healing my wounded heart (from many things). Thanks again for all you do for the Kingdom in this much avoided issue. Keep pressing on!!”—GA

“Thanks for the support...it makes a difference talking to other victims compared to a mate, family, or friends. I don’t think anyone can understand what we’re experiencing until they’ve walked in our shoes!”—MN [comment made to Heather Brown, Victim Support Services volunteer for The Hope of Survivors]

“I am taking a moment ... to tell you how much I have appreciated your website and the quality of material you have made available. I myself have pastored for over 20 years and see the real need for this information as I have, indeed, everyone has, sadly, seen men fall. There is a great need today for an aggressive training of men to be true men of God by leadership—starting in their theological training. I looked at the compilation you put together from the book Christian Service, chpt. 24 on your website and feel that that is a very good place to start. May God continue to bless and honor your ministry as you honor Him with it.”—Dave M.

“I pray for God’s continued blessings for you [Martin] and THOS. You have been God’s blessing to us—the face and heart of our Adventist church. God knew we could not bear this without your ministry.”—FL

“I am, and will always be, grateful to you. If I had not found your website, and if you had not been there for me personally, I would not have known how to put into words what had happened in a way that would have been taken seriously...”—Victim

“Martin, I really thank the Lord for your ministry it is absolutely awesome and God is using it to save our ministry. I actually read out to the whole meeting yesterday the first letter that you replied to me and it spoke volumes to everyone and gave the leadership some clear direction. This is all very new to them and they honestly did not have a clue how to go forward, but your letter explained the process beautifully, whilst at the same time helped them not to fall into sympathizing with the perpetrator."—UK

“You can’t realize (or maybe you can) how much your writing means to me. To think that somebody took this much time to respond to me, blows me away! I know I need God to be my healer, but I so need someone right now to tell me I’m okay. Your emails do that for me.”—IN

But always remember if you are ever so stressed that you are pulling your hair out—if it wasn’t for your support, guidance, encouragement, love, and friendship through my ordeal—I would not be where I am today mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. The appreciation you deserve for the ministry you provide could never be expressed in words.”—IL

“Words cannot express how much it meant to me to see you and be able to feel safe during worship again. "I have said it before and I will say it again. One thing I admire most about people is an ability to speak the truth in love, even when it hurts. ...You hit a homerun with the message I needed to hear. ...I want God to clean house and He has used you, to open up those areas in my life. I can't thank you enough for all that you have exposed to me. Not just in what is happening in my wife's life, but mine as well. You really have been one of the main tools that God has used in my life for change."—OH

"Hello. I was browsing Facebook to see if there was a Hope of Survivors group on here, or anything like that. The Ministry that you are a part of has helped me so much. I believe my mother spoke with you (via e mail) and you sent us some information a few months ago. I just wanted to thank you. I will be emailing you shortly. Thank you again. God Bless you!"—PA

"Thank you so much for your replies, and for sharing your story with me, and for reassuring me that I’m not crazy and that things like this do happen, and that my perceptions could very well have been accurate. I have read the brochures, and they’ve been extremely helpful. In fact I don’t know what I would have done if you weren’t here for me and if those materials weren’t available. I would have been completely alone, and as I’m prone to depression, I just don’t know what would have happened. Honestly I think some women in this position might grow so despondent they would think of hurting themselves. Thank you so much for the work you do in helping people like me, in helping to educate others about clergy abuse. God always finds a way to take something bad and make something good come from it, and this is what He has done through you. Thank you again for everything, I don’t know what I would have done without you."—OH

"First of all, I wish to thank you for the supportive Bible verses—especially for Ps. 37, which I have already read several times. I have faith, that I am being sheltered by Him."—NY

I just want help getting the garbage out from inside my soul. I want to be able to one day have a normal relationship and family. I’ve done a lot of cleaning up—but there is so much more to go."—CA

"I’m sorry to hear that your ministry is so busy, because I know that means there are many people in pain, but I am so grateful for the work you do. I don't know what I would have done without you, and I'm just glad you are willing to continue the ministry. It's so needed, as most churches seem to be incapable of providing victims with any form of appropriate support."—AZ

"I just finished reading Steve’s words in HopeSpeak, [January 2008] and I wanted to share with you my overwhelming feelings when I read the last line, "God has used our experience to save more than just ‘one’." I felt an upheaval in my heart and was so touched by the words that I felt like I was about to break down and cry uncontrollably. Tears came to my eyes and I was overpowered by the feeling to hold onto you both and have a good cry over what happened to you two. What a way to turn a bad situation into what your ministry is today! ... Steve’s words touched me in a way I’ve never been touched before. You two have such a special ministry and I’m thrilled to read how far it has come since C. discovered your web site. That your ministry has expanded worldwide is amazing, and you both were such an integral part of his healing. My wishes for you this new year are that God sees fit to offer your ministry more open doors and for good health. I’m so happy to have met you both... You both hold a special place in my heart."—MA

"Today, when I came back from school, I found your newsletter and believe me that I didn’t eat and I didn’t even change my clothes before I finished reading it. I didn’t know what The Hope of Survivors means, now I understand. I appreciated you and Steve, your whole work, when we met in Norway and now I have a lot of reasons to appreciate you more. You have a lot of power, and a great heart to help the others. I was really impressed by what I read. I want you to know that I pray for you and the other people who work for THOS. God bless you all."—Ralph Robertson, (former) Ministerial Director, Northern California Conference

"First off, I would love to thank you for taking the time out of your busy day for me... you don’t even know me, yet you take the time out to read my story and reply even. You assume I am telling the truth and don’t assume I am making this up. I have wanted to tell someone for the longest, but feared no one would believe me. ...You have helped me more than you will ever know..."—NY

"The time spent with you and your husband was very beneficial for the both of us. We had a wonderful time visiting. Being able to tell our story to a couple who was understanding and supportive was an amazing outlet for me. You both were so kind and compassionate to the both of us and it was so uplifting to be able to know that I (we) am not alone in this and that others have dealt with situations like mine successfully. I’ve read through the pamphlets and they are all SO good. I am getting ready to place an order so I can share them. ...Thank you so much for listening to God’s direction in your life and helping people like me. I’ll say it again—you saved my life."—Romania

"I have great admiration and appreciation for the ministry the two of you have undertaken, especially knowing a bit about the background that led to the very positive work you are doing to help so many hurting people around the world. You will be in our prayers. Pray for us, as we resume pastoral ministry in the Peoria-Sun City Adventist Church in northwest Phoenix. Though no longer serving on your board, you retain our love, respect, and high esteem as friends. Call on us if we can assist in any practical way."—Ralph Robertson, (former) Ministerial Director, Northern California Conference

"Wonderful job! The newsletter [October 2007] was the best ever! You are great. Hope it gets out the need for The Hope of Survivors to continue and how much it is needed. Great paper."—WA

"The ministry of THOS is so very important to helping those little sheep that Satan has scattered and it breaks my heart to know that many, many churches do not understand what pastoral abuse is and what it isn’t. I see very well—more than ever—a need for all the seminars and conferences you do."—WV

"The Hope of Survivors web site was literally a ‘God-send’ to me and to my husband. Both of us were betrayed by our ‘pastor-friend’ and found ourselves truly in the wilderness. You are to be commended for the depth and breadth of the ministry you offer. For victim/survivors, there really is no such thing as a local support group you can turn to in order to help minimize the shock and dismay of this particular trauma/abuse. Your web site became my/our support group, especially for my husband in hearing Steve’s story and realizing how all-too-common spouses are part of such a web. Often in the evenings, I would find great solace in reading the sad-but-very-similar stories of abuse and feel like I was not alone. Over time, your resources have helped our church understand the complexity of this issue. Your calm demeanor and sense of being ‘ever-present’ were affirming and healing to us. And, naming that this is ‘never an affair’ is extremely helpful, especially early on! Our lives have been ‘saved’ by God’s grace working through you to reach out to others! Thank you for being an authentic and reliable witness to the Gospel."—B., Maine

"I am writing to you to let you know how you have helped my wife and myself get through the trauma of CSA. Early on, your web site and your emails kept us going when all was in turmoil. You helped us to understand what it was that we were going through when we did not understand ourselves. For me, as the husband, just having another husband who had gone through this was a blessing. Steve understood what I was going through and guided me through the turmoil of CSA. Your web site and educational materials were answers to our prayers in helping not only myself and my wife understand CSA, but also letting us help others in our church family to understand what was happening. Without you there would be no hope for survivors. Thanks for being there.―P., Maine

"Thank you for sharing with me and being honest. Yes, the more time goes on and the more I learn and the more I speak with you...well, the more I see the truth of all of this. Truly, I don’t think you realize how needed you are and your ministry and how much you are a blessing to me...I can’t even imagine how many people you must have helped."—A Survivor
"I want you guys to know that the work you do is invaluable. Although I am still immersed in the pain and regret of my actions, I can see how many others have experienced what I am going through and that makes me glad to know that I will be healed and whole one day."—A Survivor

"Thanks for checking up on me. I don't know what I'd do without your support. It's amazing to me what you're doing. The Church is rich in tradition and devotional aesthetics, and there's nothing wrong with that. But, what you're doing is more Christian than anything I've seen the Church do for a long time."—A Survivor

"I am so sorry it's taken me so long to thank you for your heartfelt and beautiful email. It was just so refreshing to hear from someone who sees the truth, and has had experience in this area...Everyone seems so blind—I want to scream. That is why I can't tell you how wonderful it was to hear your words of encouragement and wise advice....I have copied your email to the members in my family who are standing on the side of God's Word in this situation. Your words have been a blessing to us all. Thank you so much for taking time out of your busy schedule to reply to me. I have no way to fully express how much it meant to hear a voice of reason, filled with Godly wisdom. You are a good person. Finally, I want to thank you so very much for taking such a painful experience in your own life, and using it to create a ministry to help others see a bit of light in a very dark place. God bless you and your ministry."—A Survivor

"Words cannot express how thankful, to God, I am to have you to turn to with all of this."—A Survivor

"I really want to thank you for your web site...I wish I had looked for it a long time ago. Your site really hit the nail on the head concerning the fact that an affair happens between equals, NOT between a clergyman and a parishioner, no matter what.... Until I found your site, I felt so very alone in this.... What you're doing with your web site is truly God's work. I know that that is what Jesus had in mind for His Church."—A Survivor

"I look at your web site daily for a bit of encouragement and a reminder that what happened was wrong, regardless of the response of the church authorities. Without your web site and kind words, I'd be lost."—A Survivor

"I'd love to be a part of your ministry in any way, shape or form. You've done so much to save my life, my marriage, my relationship with God... Prior to finding you I had AdvocateWeb, and they do still help with their online messages of hope, but your ministry is personal and one-on-one, something a new victim of CSA can't get enough of as they're struggling with the shock and wondering if they can even live another day in their newly shattered world."—A Survivor

"I will never forget my first conversation with you Samantha...you brought me hope."—A Survivor

"First, I want to thank you for all the information on the site! Thank you for this ministry! You were a blessing to me! I hope more people find you!!!"—A Survivor

"I wish to thank you very much for your web site on abuse. I am not a Christian; until recently, I had lost all faith in God, but your site really gives me hope. Once again, thank you for the information on your site, as I said, it truly does give me hope."—A Survivor

"Thank you for providing this help to the victims. I am the full-time pastor of the Cohutta Georgia Seventh-day Adventist Church and Senior Chaplain for the Dalton Georgia Police Department. I commend you for your work and believe that we must do even more to assure that children and adults are safe from predators whether they be pastors or laypersons. We have hidden our heads in the sand way too long."—Elder Jim Cox, Pastor & Certified Master Law Enforcement Chaplain

"In addition to giving thanks to you for your help and support, I have to always give thanks to my friend. She was the one who got on the Internet and found your web site. If not for her, the guilt I was feeling would have overwhelmed me and led me to suicide. I did not realize anything about clergy abuse or that it was not my fault. Your web site changed everything. I'll never forget my friend calling and saying to check out the web site because she said when she read it she got chills and thought, "This is it. This is what happened to you." She happens to have been a good friend of the pastor and his wife, too, so it was hard for her, but she reached out to help me. So many people were led by God to help me and most of all my fiancée, in his love, was able to stick with me and all the things he would say to me would mirror what you would say, and he hadn't even read your information at the beginning, so it was coming from his heart. God is great and I give him thanks for what you and Steve are doing. I am so blessed!"—Midwest Survivor

"Great email. You read my words carefully and responded with steadfast support. It is refreshing to be heard so clearly."—L, Illinois

"I am just so very happy to have found you right now. I have to say your responses feel like balm to my soul because I can tell you listen to everything I say and that you understand what I am sharing. I really appreciate the love you have already shown to us. I am very glad that I went to your web site and admire the fact that you have done this and want to make your pain help other people."—D., Ohio
“Thanks again for your prayers & concern. It actually feels comforting to know someone out there understands about the effects of such pastoral abuse & to have someone show concern! Thank You! It means a lot!”—Survivor, SE U.S.

“I can’t tell you how much it means to me to know that you’re there. I pray for a peaceful existence one day, as you seem to have, and to be at peace with myself with God’s help. I pray for that so much.”—K., Virginia

“You are very sweet and kind. I appreciate your encouragement.”—A., Florida

“I thank God that you’re my messenger. You have no idea how much peace I have about my decision, and how much you have blessed me. You have helped me to see what the Lord’s will was from the beginning, I knew deep in my heart this is what He wanted me to do from the start, but I was letting worldly issues guide me, not the Holy Spirit that lives in me. Thanks so much for being here for me…I know that I’m in for a long haul and a rough road ahead and it is a comfort to know that you will be there for me through it all.”—J., New Mexico

“I am so thankful God put you in my life. You have been a great blessing to me. I can talk to you like you were my sister. I do feel very comfortable sharing my thoughts and feelings with you. I really feel you listen to what I am saying and when I tell you I am in pain you don’t try to brush me off by saying just get over it. I am thankful that when I sent my story to you, you didn’t just delete it. I am also very thankful for when I have talked to you by phone you always end our phone call with a prayer. That has meant a great deal to me. Thank you.”—M., Georgia

“The Hope of Survivors is a ministry that provides good information about CSA, with an added personal touch. Samantha, who corresponds with the women who have been abused, has e-mailed me, sent me books and brochures, and even a birthday card! She has given me hope during the darkest time I have ever known, as only a fellow CSA survivor can. She has also provided me with the names of two other CSA survivors; women I have become close friends with thru e-mails and phone conversations. Her brochures about CSA are the best I’ve seen; a crime that is often shrouded in confusion is brought to light with gentle truth and compassionate mercy.”—T., Ohio

“I found The Hope of Survivors via the International Candlelight Vigil website in October of 2003. Since visiting The Hope of Survivors’ web site initially, I have come to know Samantha Nelson and her and her husband’s story, and I also have experienced the glory of hope through The Hope of Survivors’ mission.

I’m an adult female victim of clergy sexual abuse. It is a very, very painful recovery but The Hope of Survivors has supported me emotionally and in other ways and I know I’m not alone. I can truly say that the ministry of The Hope of Survivors has allowed me to grow spiritually, realizing that the pain and anguish I have experienced at the hands of my former minister was not the will of God, and that God is there to help me heal.

I’m very thankful for their ministry as it offers true hope for healing from the devastating effects of clergy sexual abuse. My hope is that The Hope of Survivors’ ministry continues to grow, educating and offering hope to women, congregations of all denominations, clergy and church officials.”—K., Virginia

“I just thought of something the other day and thought I’d mention it. I have noticed such an incredible release in my life from the past—I remember thinking, okay—it takes about 4 years or so and then you’re completely healed. (That’s still a long time!) And a lot of life has been lost or strained due to a bad choice by the perp. But I’ve really felt different the past couple months, and I think this is key: you told me to get rid of everything in my house that I could—things he gave me, memorabilia... I actually had a photo album devoted entirely to church people and events, and it was under my bed. Well, I got rid of that, the ring he gave me, all the papers for the attorney—I put it out of the house. What a difference it made—and I didn’t even consciously think of it—I just put it together the other day—had an “aha” moment—“so THAT’s why I’ve been feeling so much better!” So keep telling women that, who come to you for help—get rid of everything—every reminder of him... every gift he gave. There’s really something to that.”—T., Ohio

“Thank you so much for your web site. You have no idea what a great help it was for me. It really explains everything so well. I was in an abusive relationship with my pastor for a year and a half. I am so thankful you wrote about the confusion because I felt very confused throughout, because he kept saying this was from God...and I was to be become his next wife, the one God ordained for him. He used scripture continually through this whole ordeal. Scripture is hard for me to read now. Thank God for your ministry. What a blessing to others! You see, I don’t think women see this as abuse, they don’t understand. But thanks to you and your ministry and web site, it is so true, and everything makes sense now.”—A Survivor
