The Easter 2011 choral presentation by the Andrews University Department of Music is entitled “For the Sake of the Children”. The program is inspired by Jesus Christ’s words: “Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.” Additionally, the theme of renewal for all humankind will be explored and celebrated as made possible through God’s plan of salvation. Director Stephen Zork has selected choral music and Biblical narratives that span creation, Christ’s ministry, His crucifixion and resurrection; and culminate in the earth made new.

A free-will offering will be taken to support the ongoing ministry of Saving Orphans through Health & Outreach (SOHO) that serves orphaned children in sub-Saharan Africa and areas deeply affected by HIV/AIDS.

Please call 888.467.6442 to reserve free tickets. Tickets will be available from 7-7:45 P.M. the night of the concert only. Tickets not claimed by 7:45 will be released.
