Chart-topping Christian singer Francesca Battistelli stands out among other artists with her soulful pop-tinged sensibilities and a rich, beautifully nuanced voice. Her creative spirit shines in the relatable lyrics she pens. The goal of her music is to bring something authentic to the scene that Christians and non-Christians alike listen to. The 2011 Dove Artist of the Year appears to have accomplished this in her well-known songs Free to Be Me, I'm Letting Go and This is the Stuff.

Born to a rich musical heritage, Elisabeth is the granddaughter of legendary Maria and Baron von Trapp whose story inspired The Sound of Music. With equal ease and eloquence, she sings a repertoire ranging from Bach to Broadway, Shubert to Sting singing timeless wonders like Rodgers & Hammerstein's Favorite Things, Edelweiss, Gospel music, pop classics and her own stunning compositions. She is accompanied by the elegant arrangements of her guitar and piano. Critics have called her voice "hauntingly clear" and "joyfully expressive."
