Ticket Info: No Tickets Required

"Savior of the Nations, Come" is the theme of this year's "Welcome Christmas" Choral Concert. The centerpiece of the garland of endearing carols is the resplendent "Gloria" from the "Messe di Gloria" by Giacomo Puccini. Amongst the ornaments of carols is "Christmas Dinner" arranged by Stephen Zork, "What Child is This?" arranged by Donald McCullough, "Wexford Carol" arranged by Milburn Price, "A Boy Was Born" by Benjamin Britten, and the English carol setting "Ding Dong! Merrily On High" arranged by David Willcocks on a popular 16th century French tune. The featured guest of the evening will be Louis M. DeShantz, a prolific and published composer living in Berrien County. The Andrews University Singers will be featuring two of his choral compositions – "Winds Through the Olive Trees" and "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind".

The concert begins at 7:00 pm on November 30, 2012 in the Howard Performing Arts Center on the campus of Andrews University. This is a first-come-first-seated event, free and open to the public. An offering will be received.
