Howard Center Newsletter

This Saturday!

Saturday, September 7, at 8:30 P.M.

After listening to the Heritage Singers in concert, you’re sure to walk away with a song in your heart and a smile on your face! Back by popular demand, this American-gospel vocal group sings traditional gospel music, hymns, contemporary Christian music, and even some children’s music that will leave you reminiscing about your childhood! Eight passionate vocalists, including founder Max Mace, are the heart of the Heritage Singers ministry—42 years strong! This group of professional musicians tours in all 50 states and has performed in more than 75 countries around the world. Touring with them is special guest Pete McLeod, Christian comedian and musician, and alumnus of Andrews University.
Reserved Seating $15; Flex Series $10; Faculty & Staff $10; AU Students $5
