Chanticleer - Tomorrow Evening

Tuesday, October 8, at 7:00 P.M.

Tomorrow evening we celebrate ten years of the Howard Performing Arts Center with Chanticleer. We are so grateful for the gift of John and Dede Howard who made these last ten years of exceptional concert experiences possible.

Prepare to be swept away by “an orchestra of voices” through the musical genres of Renaissance, jazz, gospel and contemporary by the all-male vocal ensemble, Chanticleer. The 12 members are celebrating Chanticleer’s 35th anniversary as they make all 100 stops on their tour this season. The San Francisco based group has won three GRAMMY Awards and stands as the first vocal ensemble to be inducted into the American Classical Music Hall of Fame. Chanticleer’s creative interpretations of vocal literature are sure to soar when coupled with the acoustics of the Howard Center’s state-of-the-art concert hall.

Reserved Seating $30; Faculty & Staff $25; Students $10
No children ages 5 and under.

Sponsored by Wales & Associates and Schalk & Associates, of Ameriprise Financial Services, Inc.
