Howard Center Presents...

The Filharmonic

Sponsored by MPA Architects

This Sunday, January 18 at 7:00 p.m., the Howard Performing Arts Center will present The Filharmonic, an a cappella group that was featured in the fourth season of NBC’s hit musical competition, “The Sing-Off.”

The six Filharmonic members are Filipino-Americans from Los Angeles, Calif. Vocalists VJ Rosales, Joe Caigoy, Trace Gaynor, and Barry Fortgang, Vocal Bass Jules Cruz, and Beat boxer Niko Del Rey met at college singing competitions, and solidified into a group specifically for NBC’s “The Sing-Off.” Their melodic vocal style exemplifies an urbanesque hip hop sound with 90's nostalgia.

The Filharmonic members share genuine chemistry, unparalleled love of music, and undeniable musical talents. They come from a variety of backgrounds, including pop, a cappella, jazz, opera, theater, and classical. Currently, the boys can be found attending school, hard at work on their music and videos, and doing what they love most: simply performing.
