The Bahamas: Church challenged to be servants of the people as territory leadership is officially installed

Posted: 18 Jan 2011 09:00 PM PST

The leadership of the newly organized Atlantic Caribbean Union Mission of Seventh-day Adventists (ACUM) was challenged to be servants of God’s people during the Service of Consecration and Inauguration held on Jan. 15, at the Grants Town Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Adventist 2011 world budget highlights mission, administrative support

Posted: 17 Jan 2011 09:00 PM PST

Continuing tradition, the two largest components of the Seventh-day Adventist Church’s world budget this year will fund appropriations for administrative and mission work outside of North America and fund operation of the world headquarters building.