Inter-America: Church launches prayer revival program via satellite

Posted: 11 Feb 2011 09:00 PM PST

Thousands of Seventh-day Adventists witnessed the official launch of the church's prayer revival initiative which took place earlier today live via satellite from El Palacio de los Deportes Stadium, in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
Thousands of Seventh-day Adventists witnessed the official launch of the church's prayer revival initiative which took place earlier today live via satellite from El Palacio de los Deportes Stadium, in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

February 12, 2011 - Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic...Libna Stevens/IAD

Thousands of Seventh-day Adventists witnessed the official launch of the church's prayer revival initiative which took place earlier today live via satellite from El Palacio de los Deportes Stadium, in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. The program brought church leaders from throughout the Division's 21 church regions to participate in comprehensive spiritual revival and reformation program that will take place in the days ahead.

Full story of the event will be available soon at www.interamerica.org

To view a photo gallery of the event, go to www.flickr.com/photos/interamerica