Inter-America: Thousands of new members join the Adventist Church through Pentecost and More initiative

Posted: 18 Mar 2011 09:00 PM PDT

Thousands of new members were added to the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Mar. 19, as the Inter-American Division territory culminated its aggressive evangelistic efforts began earlier this year.

Inter-America: Thousands of new members join the Adventist Church through Pentecost and More initiative

Posted: 18 Mar 2011 09:00 PM PDT

Thousands of new members were added to the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Mar. 19, as the Inter-American Division territory culminated its aggressive evangelistic efforts began earlier this year.
Thousands of new members were added to the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Mar. 19, as the Inter-American Division territory culminated its aggressive evangelistic efforts began earlier this year.

March 19, 2011 – Maracaibo, Zulia, Venezuela...Libna Stevens/IAD

Thousands of new members were added to the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Mar. 19, as the Inter-American Division territory culminated its aggressive evangelistic efforts began earlier this year. Church leaders reported more than 15,000 baptisms from 15 of the 21 regions of the IAD during the Pentecost and More satellite event which took place in Maracaibo, Venezuela. So far, the IAD has reported over 62,000 baptisms this year and numbers are expected to be higher, according to Pastor Balvin Braham, ministerial association associate and organizer of the event.

For full story on IAD’s Pentecost and More coming up soon, visit www.interamerica.org