IAMA Hotline 2014 Music position vacancies 1-4/corrected mailing/newsletter to follow . . .

PLEASE NOTE: A mailing of our autumn newsletter will be made this coming week. Send me news about you and/or your program - or a link to a performance and I will include it. Must be sent by Tuesday AM . . .

Thanks!

ds

Northern Caribbean University

Strings Teacher

Northern Caribbean University (NCU), a Seventh-day Adventist institution located in Mandeville, Jamaica, West Indies, is seeking to fill a music faculty position. Seventh-day Adventists with the following qualifications and experience are invited to apply:

Description

• Serve as a faculty member in the NCU Music Department
• Teach music at the Victor Dixon High School and West Indies College
• Act as the liaison teacher/supervisor for NCU Music Education Students, while they are fulfilling student teaching requirements.
• Teach in the NCU Community Music School
• Develop string programmes at the Elementary and High School; organize and develop the NCU string orchestra with students from the schools listed above, as well as students and other players from the community

Qualifications/Experience

• Minimum of a master’s degree in music in violin, viola, or violoncello.
• Bachelor’s degree in music education
• Proven experience in developing a string programme
• Elementary, Middle school or High School teaching experience

NCU is organized in six colleges and offers more than 70 academic and professional degrees. For additional information we invite you to visit our website at: www.ncu.edu.jm

Candidate should be available to begin working during the Spring Semester which begins January 2014.

Interested candidates are encouraged to send a cover letter and résumé to the office of Human Resource Management through its e-mail address: hr@ncu.edu.jm

Contact:
The Director, Human Resource Management, Northern Caribbean University, Mandeville P.O., Jamaica, West Indies.
Phone: 876-963-7163.

Central Valley Christian Academy (2)
Music

Grades 5-12

Description

Central Valley Christian academy is looking for a music teacher who can direct a band and choir at the academy level and band in the 5th through 12th grades. Some lower elementary teaching may be required, depending on junior high band combinations.

CVAC is a K-12 xxday school of 200 students located in Modesto, California, the Central Valley region of the state with prime growing conditions for “just about everything.” It is located 1 ½ hours west of Yosemite National Park.

The school is supported by a strong constituency of eight very supportive churches. We are looking for someone who can make a strong connection with young people and grow the music program.

Experience/Qualifications

Our ideal candidate will be an excellent teacher with a proven track record of success in engaging students in music through creating, performing and participating in music, knowing and using music materials and resources, and understanding the cultural dimensions and contributions of music. A Bachelor’s degree in music is required along with SDA Denominational Certification.

Interested candidates should email a resume to: principal@cvcaonline.net

Resumes Due By Jan 31 2014

Contact: Wayne Dunbar, Principal

2020 Academy Place, Ceres, CA 95307

(209) 537-4521
Orangewood Academy

Music Teacher

Description

Orangewood Academy is seeking full time credentialed music teacher beginning August of 2014. Current teacher is retiring. Orangewood Academy is located one mile from Disneyland in southern California. We are a pre-school through 12th grade school. The current music position includes elementary choir, jr. high choir, high school choir, and hand bells. However, am open to possible job description changes depending on credential.

Experience

Minimum 5-10 years teaching experience in an Adventist school. Must have music credential/endorsement.

Resumes Due: Jul 1 2014

Contact: Datha Tickner

13732 Clinton Street, Garden Grove, CA 92843

714-534-4694
dtickner@orangewoodacademy

La Sierra University

Director of Choral Studies

Assistant or Associate Professor, Director of Choral Studies (Tenure Track)
Qualifications

Degree Requirements: Minimum: Master’s degree in conducting Preferred: Doctor of Musical Arts degree in choral conducting. Considered: ABD or DMA or equivalent professional experience.

- Required: Practicing Seventh-day Adventist Christian, showing evidence of past and current involvement and service.
- Proven success as a choral director at the high school, university and/or professional levels.
- Evidence of potential for effectiveness as an educator.
- Demonstrated technical and musical skills appropriate to conduct the University Chorale and Chamber Singers ensembles.
- Evidence of personal and organizational skills appropriate to recruitment and the ongoing growth and expansion of the choral studies program.

Responsibilities

Choral

- Conduct the University Chorale and Chamber Singers.
- Coordinate, recruit for, and sustain a strong choral studies program.
- Develop new choral ensembles as appropriate for the size and scope of the department and university.

Choral-Related Academic Courses

- Teach choral conducting at the undergraduate level.
- Teach choral studies-related courses in the Music Education curriculum.
- Mentor and supervise Performer’s Certificate choral conducting students.
- Collaborate with wind/percussion and orchestral studies, in the oversight/administration of the conducting sequence of courses.

Vocal Studies

- Collaborate with the vocal studies department in programming requiring choral participation.
- Support and assist the vocal studies faculty in recruitment activities.

Professional

- Establish and cultivate collegial relationships with local and regional high school and academy choral directors.
- Participate in seminars, workshops, conventions and other activities related to professional development.
- Maintain local, regional, and national visibility as a choral conductor through activities such as guest conducting, choral clinics, adjudicating.
- Increase the visibility of the choral program by ensemble participation in adjudicated choral festivals and conventions.
Service

- In collaboration with the department’s outreach office, schedule and direct choral ensemble participation in area worship services, school educational concerts, and community events.
- Advise undergraduate and Performer’s Certificate students.
- Serve on committees and perform other university and professional service, as appropriate.
- Additional departmental responsibilities as assigned, dependent on candidate’s interest, areas of expertise, and department needs.

Appointment: begins July 1, 2014

Salary: Commensurate with Assistant Professor rank and qualifications.

General Information: The Seventh-day Adventist Church founded La Sierra University in the scenic Southern California City of Riverside in 1922. Riverside is a city of over 250,000 located within one hour of beaches, mountains, deserts, and Los Angeles. LSU’s fundamental purpose is to provide higher education in an environment for learning that emphasizes personal integrity, intellectual development, and generous service to humankind and the church. LSU is a multicultural campus with students from over 70 nations. We are a religiously-qualified Equal Opportunity Employer with the right to prefer Seventh-day Adventists in hiring.

Application: Review of applications will begin October 25, 2013 and continue until the position is filled.

Qualified candidates should submit a La Sierra University application, a formal letter of interest, a current curriculum vitae, three letters of reference, and official undergraduate and graduate transcripts to: Desiree Fawn Noah, Human Resource Office, La Sierra University, 4500 Riverwalk Parkway, Riverside, CA 92515 (951) 785-2088  dfnoah@lasierra.edu

Candidates should submit representative copies of teaching evaluations (if available) and a DVD or at least three video links of performances and/or rehearsals to: Elvin Rodriguez Ed.D., Chair, Department of Music, La Sierra University, 4500 Riverwalk Parkway, Riverside, CA 92515, (951)785-2036  erodrigu@lasierra.edu