It’s the End of the World—Again!
Once more, trouble comes knocking

Just a few months into the year, and already the inhabitants of Planet Earth are reeling from a world gone seriously haywire. Most notable on the disaster barometer are Australian floods; Japanese Earthquake and flooding; meltdown in the Middle East—and North American weather. People are shaking their heads and asking, “What in the world is going on?”

It’s often so much easier to tolerate famine, flood and earthquake when it’s “over there.” All we need do is write a check to our favorite charity, turn off the TV, set the dishwasher and coffee-maker, turn out the light and lay our heads on our comfy pillows, safe in the knowledge that the morning will come and our “normal” will continue just like it did today. Eat, drink and be as merry as possible.

Ten years ago this year a new “normal” came knocking when the Towers in New York crumbled to the ground. The world has never been the same since. Thousands of lives later, we are still trying to mop up from a sink that won’t stop spilling over. But as long as it’s “our boys” “over there” keeping the hotheads busy, we can sleep safe in our beds—right?

But have you noticed? The unruly weather and unruly hotheads are getting closer to our own backyards. Planet Earth has become an even more dangerous place to live lately; and it doesn’t look much like stopping, and no one brought some corn for popping. A couple of years past one of the worst financial collapses the planet has ever known we are still wondering how to maintain the constant military monitoring of people with a cause other than ours.

Recently, while the State of Texas burned to the sandy ground, a gigantic weather system made its way across the Southern States. Alabama was the hardest hit and suffered the worst American casualties inflicted by Mother Nature since Katrina hit the coast. After a few minutes of looking at the pictures and watching the footage, the mind takes on a numbness of overload. Many Alabama streets look like a ticker-tape parade just went through, leaving just the debris for the clean-up crews to take care of. Mercifully, the tornadoes went just a little north of us, and we were spared—for now.

The end of the world may not have come by your door, yet. But it will, and one day the end of the world will be here to stay—forever! Things may seem pretty scary right now, but this may be as good as it’s going to get for a while. If you have work to do, now would be a good time to be about it.

“Quotable”

–Oscar Wilde
