A Church, a school and something to read—perfect!

LAST MONTH ONE OF OUR STAFF JOINED A LOCAL CHURCH group on a mission trip to Honduras in Central America. The plan was to take a team of volunteers down to help Maranatha Missions build a One-day church and several school buildings. It was decided that it would be a good idea to take down some of our books at the same time.

Almost 4,000 Spanish books and booklets were packaged into plastic baggies and stuffed into team members’ luggage for the journey. Anyone who’s traveled lately will be aware of airlines’ tight restrictions on luggage limits. Thankfully, due to some canny pack-ratting, all the tools, supplies and books made it to their destination in one piece.

Honduras is not a wealthy country, by any means, and appreciates any and all help it receives. With a literacy rate of almost 84%, the books would enjoy a fairly wide audience. And though the local drinking water may not have been up to snuff, the Living Water that was scattered about will bring forth fruit according to the promise of God. The heart of a book beats long after its owner has left.

Once the building was done each day, volunteers attended and conducted evangelistic meetings for the locals and beyond. Hundreds of people came to enjoy the enthusiastic messages from local pastors and those that went down from our local church. A form of Vacation Bible School was compressed into a few days, and many, many children were blessed by the presentations.

It is always such a blessing to be in a position to scatter books containing seeds of life. Perhaps one of the most important things a Christian can do is to make sure his work carries on once he leaves. Thank you for helping us to make this possible.
