World-class, Expert Presenters
Spectacular Beachside Location

Punta Cana, Dominican Republic
April 24-26, 2012

Why Should I Attend the 7th World Congress?

- Enjoy three days of stimulating presentations from some of the world’s leading experts in the field of religious liberty.
- Make valuable contacts. Meet and talk with academics, government officials, religious leaders, lawyers, and others from around the world who care about religious freedom.
- Expand your knowledge of current legal, political and social trends, and access a wealth of practical resources.
- Experience the beautiful beachside location of one of the Dominican Republic’s premier "all-inclusive" resorts, the Barceló Bávaro Beach Resort.
- Participate in the largest World Congress to date, and the first to be held in Inter-America. Don’t miss the opportunity to be a part of this historic event!

Why Should I Register Early?

- Receive the special discounted early registration rate if you complete online registration before December 31, 2011.
- Secure your place at the Congress—available spaces are expected to fill quickly.
- Ensure that your choice of hotel room at the Barceló Bávaro Beach Resort is available.
