Dear Friends and Family,

Happy Thanksgiving! This is my favorite holiday and favorite time of year! I love the cool air, the colored leaves, and the celebration of thankfulness this season brings. As I reflect on what I'm thankful for, one of the many blessings I count are you, our donors and supporters. Without you, our projects would not exist, the Gospel would not be as accessible, and many lives would not be saved. You've been there with your prayers and financial support during our times of need, times of praise and times of change. We appreciate and thank you for your involvement in our ministry! And we wish you a very Happy Thanksgiving!

Ways to Give: As you think about giving at this time of the year, we'd like to make you aware of a number of opportunities. The first one below does not cost you anything. Read on to find out how it works...

Donate When You Shop at Amazon.com...
Just click on ShopJFA.com first.

If you are considering doing some Christmas shopping on Amazon this year, please go to ShopJFA.com and use the link before you shop. Each time you shop on Amazon, up to 10% of your purchase will go to support Jesus for Asia's projects - at no extra cost to you! Please note that this is not AmazonSmile. This link gives a higher percentage of your purchase to JFA (up to 10%, versus 0.5% with AmazonSmile). It's an easy way to give where Amazon does the charity work for you. Christmas Tree Project:

Feed 100 Kids or 1,000 Kids And Receive a Button
Another way to give this year is through our Christmas Tree Project. Any offering toward a JFA project will be placed on our Christmas Tree with either an envelope or a button. If you would like to make a donation of $25 to feed 100 children or a donation of $250 to feed 1,000 children, we will place a button on the tree and mail you a button also (see above). Or, to make a donation toward any JFA project, just mark your offering "Christmas Tree Project" and we will put an envelope on the tree making note of this. Click here or on the picture below to watch a promotional video explaining our Christmas Tree Project.
Self-Denial Banks: Save for the Children
The self-denial bank (plastic church) is a wonderful way to remind kids (and grown-ups) of the children in India who have less than we do: less food, less education, and much less of a chance to learn about Jesus. Each quarter placed in the church will give one child a meal, 2 hours of teaching, and a half-hour of Bible instruction. Mrs. White recommends that everyone have a self-denial bank. She writes, "At one time, when I was speaking in Nashville, the Lord gave me light on this matter. It flashed upon me with great force that in every home there should be a self-denial box, and that into this box the children should be taught to put their pennies they would otherwise spend for candy and other unnecessary things...Every member of the family, from the oldest to the youngest should practice self-denial." (CG 132)

Please let us know if you would like a self-denial bank, to save for the children in India. Just $7 will feed, educate and teach one child about Jesus for one month at one of our evening schools. It's a wonderful, rewarding way to help the needy. When you've filled up your bank, you may write us a check for the balance and mark it "Saving the Lives."

"I saw that every prayer which is sent up in faith from an honest heart, will be heard of God and answered; and the one that sent up the petition will have the blessing when he needs it most, and it will often exceed his expectations. Not a prayer of a true saint is lost if sent up in faith, from an honest heart." (1T 120)
