Dear ATS Members and Subscribers,

ATS's membership and theological community is spread far and wide, but the web and online technology helps bring us closer. Our mission to be a theological resource for the Seventh-day Adventist church remains the same, and our website is an important tool towards that end.

We are excited to be adding new resources to the site every year, and we are about to make some significant upgrades and changes to the site. Before doing so, we want to hear from you - our website users!

The website survey is quite brief (only 11 questions) and we need your feedback - would you please invest 5 minutes to share with us your ideas and vision for the site? Please take our survey at the following address:

Thank you so much for taking the time to help us improve your website experience!

Sincerely,

ATS Leadership
