Tomorrow is the last day!

Thank you for taking time these past two weeks to focus on the 70% of Adventist youth attending public high schools—they need you to be a part of their lives!

The Shema was the foundation of Jewish family and religious life in Jesus day and it should be in ours as well. Jesus’ invitation to make disciples is also an invitation to walk beside our youth both in their academies and in their public schools as well. Valugenesis shows conclusively that youth grow spiritually when caring Christian adults take time for them when they "rise up and when they lay down and when they are walking through life's way."

Thank you for doing that and encouraging others, too.

As we head into the final weekend I simply ask you to 9 minutes in length and great for showing to your youth group and/or church.

Jesus Living in You is the portion of the site that helps you to be connected to Jesus in an intimate way so that all your outreach can be powered by Him. Here you will find new ideas for structuring your devotional life and dozens of devotional readings by authors such as, Dwain Esmond, John McCann and Scott Ward. If you are a devotional writer please submit your ideas at http://livingiths.org/contact.

Outreach Ideas are just that—ideas for reaching high school students in their world, both on and off campus. All of these ideas have been tried and found to be effective. The ideas have been contributed by various youth pastors and youth directors around the NAD. This is not a one person show—it’s a movement!

At-Risk Help is contributed by Loma Linda University’s Behavioral Health Institute. Here you will find overviews of various at-risk behaviors that you may encounter and ideas for helping to deal with each kind of situation. This is an invaluable resource!

pray, pray, pray for Adventist public high school students and the friends in their spheres of influence. Pray that they will have a heart for Jesus and their friends at school and that loving Christian mentors will enter their lives to help show them how to live their faith for Jesus!

December 20 we will announce the iPad Mini winners!
