Much Anticipated Convention is This Weekend

The annual Maranatha convention is this weekend, September 23-24 in Tualatin, Oregon. We hope you are planning to join us for the special weekend celebration. Maranatha representatives are traveling from all over the world to bring photos, stories and updates on the hundreds of projects that Maranatha volunteers like you have made possible over the last year.

If you cannot attend the convention, please check out the LIVE stream of the program on our website. Visit maranatha.org at 7pm on Friday, and then Saturday at 9:15am-12noon, then 2:30-4:30pm Pacific Standard Time. You will be delighted by the video updates, and messages from enthusiastic volunteers, delegates from many continents, and a colorful message from Maranatha’s own Dick Duerksen.

Christian musical group Christian Edition will be performing throughout the program, including the inspiring theme song for the 2011 Maranatha convention, “Bound for the Kingdom”.

Please don’t miss this event. The positive energy of hundreds of eager volunteers is something special. If there is any way you can be in Oregon this weekend, there is still time to register. CLICK HERE to let us know you are coming and we’ll provide lunch on Sabbath. We will see you there! Otherwise, tune in online for a taste of the excitement.
