2. what does it mean to be a disciple?

About 65 young people searched for an answer to this question at our recent inspiration weekend. Michael Dörnbrack, director of Josiah Mission School in Germany, came to teach us. The topic was "Follow me". How well do we recognize Jesus’ mission?

Hearing about that powerful mission and discovering the many blessings of discipleship motivated many to want to be disciples too, acknowledging the fact that knowledge does not really help us, unless put into practice.
3. the ADRA concert

On Sunday, Nov. 9, several musicians came together to contribute their talents for a charity concert, which was held for a project in Myanmar (old Burma). The church was crowded. Different styles of music were performed, among them classical music, solos and Christian choir pieces.

Near the end of the concert, the audience was invited to support the project with a donation. The generosity shown was a clear indication of what a great blessing the concert was...

4. special outreach – computer problem

We recently had a service week, where we helped our neighbors and friends in different ways. Johannes reports: “The first day I visited an elderly lady who had some problems with her computer. When I arrived at her house, I soon realized that her problem was very basic and easy to solve. Almost anyone could have helped her. Yet she appreciated my help as much as if she had won the lottery! What a blessing!”
5. how to study the bible

Have you ever wished to dig deep into the wonderful truths of the Bible? Recently, in our classes we were challenged to stop, think and ask questions in a totally new way that helped us to dig very deep into the Word. We suddenly saw scenes we had never seen before. And we learned to apply what we had learned to our lives. God’s Word is like a treasure chest that is just waiting to bring us all its heavenly blessings!

6. praise and prayer requests

Whether we’re talking about an Inspiration Weekend or an ADRA concert, whether it be our blessed outreach experiences or personal discoveries in the Word of God, we want to give all the glory to our heavenly Father, who “works in [us], both to will and to work for His good pleasure“ (Philippians 2, 13). Thank you also for all your prayers, donations and various other ways of contributing to the operation of Matteson Mission School. Please continue to pray, especially for our encounters with people from the community in the form of personal Bible studies. Thank you very much!
