February 11, 2011

Statement on Egyptian President Resignation

"As we've been watching the news unfold concerning the resignation of Egyptian President Mubarak and the senseless deaths of about 300 Egyptians, we are reminded that God is still in control and we join in prayer over the safety of the citizens and the governing power that will now have to make decisions for this country.” – Pastor Dan Jackson, president of the North American Division.