Radio Tribute
In his role with the Columbia Union Conference, Elder Harcombe also served as president and chair of Washington Adventist University's radio station, WGTS 91.9 FM in Takoma Park, Md., where he recently helped establish a chaplaincy program. With 600,000 listeners, WGTS is the second largest contemporary Christian radio station in the United States. This weekend the station will rebroadcast a Breakaway program where Chaplain Terry Johnsson interviewed Elder Harcombe about his life and ministry. The 30-minute program will air as follows:
Friday, May 13, 7:30 p.m.
Saturday, May 14, 9 a.m.

Gateway Fellowship Tribute
Last fall Elder Harcombe helped WGTS launch a weekly Sabbath evening worship service for radio listeners. He spoke there once each quarter and was thrilled with this growing new ministry. Station leaders will hold a special tribute service Sabbath, May 28, at 6 p.m.
