Is This You?

Registered for Seattle? Please visit the attendee database and make sure we’ve got your name and location correct. Let us know if we need to make any changes, or if someone is missing from the list.

Seattle 2012: Sold Out!

The One project gathering in Seattle has officially sold out! More than 500 people have registered to attend and spend two days thinking deeply about Jesus.

If you didn’t register but still want to attend, contact us, and in the event of a cancellation, we will do our best to secure you a spot.

Church of Refuge Summit

February 15, 2012, the day after the One project gathering and in the same hotel, we will be holding the first Church of Refuge (COR) Summit.

RSVP with Japhet De Oliveira by January 4, 2012 via email or call the office 9-5 EST +1.269.471.8341

- Only 75 spots available
- Food: Free breakfast to participants
- Time: 8:00 am to 10:00 am
- Location: Westin Hotel Downtown Seattle
- Room: Grand Crescent

Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries: a One project partner

As a partner to the One project, Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries (ACM) has expressed their support of the One project and its goal to celebrate and promote the supremacy in This Issue

In This Issue

- Is This You?
- Seattle 2012: Sold Out!
- Church of Refuge Summit
- Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries: a One project partner
- Sydney 2012
- Copenhagen 2012
- Chicago 2013
- In the Christmas spirit
- Seattle Details Coming
- Over 1000 on Facebook
- For Your Eyes

Connect With Us

Partners

- Adventist Chaplaincy Ministries
- Adventist Mission
- AdventSource
- Andrews University Campus Ministry
- Andrews University Theological Seminary
- British Union Conference
- Center for Creative Ministry
- Center for Secular and Postmodern Studies
- Center for Youth Evangelism
- Danish Union of Churches
- Finnish Union Conference
- Florida Hospital Church
of Jesus Christ.

As a ministry of the General Conference, ACM provides support and resources to the many Adventist chaplains who care for the spiritual needs of the people they serve, whether in community and government agencies, correctional institutions, healthcare facilities, military forces, the work place, or on educational campuses.

Sydney 2012

Registration for the 2012 gathering in Australia is now open! Join us for a time of reflection and refreshing in Sydney on July 28-29.

Copenhagen 2012

Registration is now open for the 2012 gathering in Copenhagen, Denmark on November 2-3. Join us!

Special thanks to the Danish Union of Churches for subsidizing the cost of the Copenhagen gathering.

Chicago 2013

Registration is now open for the One project gathering in Chicago (February 2013). Visit our Chicago info page for more details, and be sure note the tiered pricing. It pays to register early!

An added feature of our Chicago gathering is "Conversations": Check it out!

In the Christmas spirit

In the Christmas spirit of giving, we encourage you to consider donating to the One project this holiday season. Gifts are tax deductible.

Seattle Details

The next newsletter from the One project will contain details about Seattle and all the information that inquiring minds are eager to know. If you have any questions in the meantime, visit the Seattle page or contact us.
Over 1000 on Facebook

The One project Facebook group now has over 1000 members: be sure that you’re one of them. It’s a great place to get the latest news bits and to share and receive encouraging messages about Jesus. All.

For Your Eyes

Matthew Gamble, Nathan Brown, and Becky De Oliveira will be joining us in Seattle in a panel discussion on Jesus in 2012. Each of them has recently published a book, and the publishers are offering them at a discount in Seattle only.

Reboot $8.99
(reg. $9.99)

I Hope $10.00
(reg. $12.99)

Keeping it Real $12.74
(reg. $14.99)

Send this email to a friend
Update your contact info
Unsubscribe
the ONE project headquarters is located at the Center for Youth Evangelism
Andrews University, Berrien Springs, MI 49104