CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND
November 7-8, 2015

Gathering - Christchurch 2015

In just 9 weeks time, we will hold our 2nd gathering in New Zealand. Every gathering we have is different, yet all focussed on Jesus. Our gatherings are truly multi-generational, with ages from 13 - 85 having enjoyed our gatherings.

Held across the weekend of November 7-8, 2015, this will be a special time together that will nurture, encourage, challenge and grow your relationship with Jesus, and each other. New friends will be made, and old friendships will be celebrated. If this is your first time attending a gathering, we are so glad you are joining us and we know that as you seek Jesus here, you will quickly feel amongst friends and fellow followers with a longing to be with Jesus too. It will be a wonderful few days, and we are confident that you will leave with a bigger and deeper understanding of what "Jesus. All." really means.

We are excited about gathering together in Christchurch for the very first time. We have limited capacity available at this venue, and with a good number of attendees already

Boulder 1:1 2016

We would like to invite you to join us the second mini One project gathering 1:1, at the Boulder Seventh-day Adventist Church in Boulder Colorado. If anyone is interested in hosting a 1:1 gathering please email Erin Hannah. Register for the Boulder 1:1 gathering 2016 online here.

Watch the videos from the 2015 gathering experience on vimeo here, or youtube here.

Here are a few of the thoughts some people had after they experienced the 1:1 gathering.

"From seeking a way forward to feeling restored, revitalized, refocused and recharged."

Danni Sherwood

"It provided me an opportunity to connect with other Boulder Church members/partners on a deeper level. I also enjoyed interacting with attendees from other parts of the country and hearing their stories."

Barbara Immele

"I appreciate the depth of study by those presenting. The Biblical record comes alive when the presentation reflects the culture, setting and a deep knowledge of the conditions surrounding the topic. I feel that my knowledge and appreciation of the scripture is growing and deepening through my time at the One project gatherings. Most important, these presentations are stimulating inquiry."

Gordy Gates

"This was the first formal SDA function I have been to in over 15 years. Usually things are more exciting in anticipation than in reality. Not so with this gathering. This was better than my highest expectations! One of the most significant spiritual happenings in the past several years of my life. It gave me new hope for my denomination."

Joe Morrato

"My wife and I both greatly enjoyed the weekend. It is exciting to see a movement within Adventism that is not placing emphasis on rules and performance and putting where it needs to be--on relationship. It is also good to see a group of Adventist leaders who understands the need to Worship and Praise God--to share with Him, to talk to Him--not just about him. I had the privilege of being part of a breakout group (Recalibration) that included several people who's relationship with the denomination was tenuous at best (including some who were not attending). It was exciting to see their enthusiasm for God and their willingness to reconsider fellowship with other believers again if those believers weren't marginalizing them and when the emphasis was on Jesus, not rules. This is a breath of fresh air for the Adventist church. Solidly in the line of Jones and Wagoner and Morris and Lee Vendon. Keep up the good work. Maybe someday, as one in our group said regarding the Nicodemus story, the small group at the top of the organization that don't get it will hear Christ say to them, "What, you are a teacher in Israel and you do not know these things?"

Wilton Helm

"For me, once again the One project has proved a vital role in the direction of Adventism. For me the One project represents a worshipful/doxological approach to the everlasting gospel. This means we go wanting God to change our perceptions of God, people, and ourselves. These God moments happen through musical worship experiences, intellectual/inspirational presentations, and heart to heart group discussions. I liked the authentic / humor based host/facilitator. (Becky did a great job!) I'm really happy with Gen One, my 15 year old son always comes back from these with a new level of insight and action. I think my younger kids were spoiled at the TOP in San Diego, so this one was not the same to them. But it was still good. Thanks so much for a transformation vs. information approach to Christ Prayers, keep up the good work!" (I think if Boulder would invest in a AC it would be a blessing.) Jonathan Rosengren.

"A wonderful, Christ centered experience. I look forward to my next "Gathering" Dennis Soappman"
