Happy Holidays...

As the year ends, we think about all for which we are grateful. Our relationship with you is something we treasure. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you.

There are many ways by which PSI can make a meaningful difference in your philanthropy initiatives. Some of those are listed below. Please peruse these and share the links below with colleagues who may have questions or need resources for fundraising, and of course, use them for yourself when the need arises.

Below the links you will find our Christmas greeting to you. We wish you a Merry Christmas and much success in the new year.

Your friends at PSI
Successful Fundraising Handbook
Beginning with the question, “Where do I start?” and moving through the process of raising money responsibly, this handbook is designed to help organizations such as churches, schools, community services and independent ministries raise money successfully, by implementing best practices. Available in English and Spanish. [Link Here]

Scholarships / CAP / DEG
Whether strengthening development programs through our Capacity Building Program, helping provide a long-term impact on institutional growth through board development, or providing scholarships for professional advancement, PSI has resources for you.

Maranatha Partnership

PSI and Maranatha are developing a partnership that aids churches and other selected organizations, and helps them accomplish their building and fundraising goals more effectively. Check out this mutual-benefit program to see if you qualify for a new church building project. First contact Maranatha, then work with PSI on responsible fundraising strategies and training.

CFRE Support

The Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) is the leading, respected certification a fundraising professional can acquire. CFRE International gives fundraisers from Adventist institutions a $165 discount on their registration when registering on-line for the CFRE. Contact PSI to learn more.

Webinars & Podcasts

PSI produces podcasts and webinars that are focused on highly relevant topics, valuable for today's nonprofit leaders and fundraisers. We hope that you will find new insights, instructional advice, and an occasional inspirational nugget to inform and guide you in your practice. While each podcast or webinar may vary in length, we think you'll find yourself coming back here every month to hear another.
