We are told to “be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God…” (Philippians 4:6). If we want to be effective soul winners, we must have an open channel of communication with God!

Things to remember

1. Set aside a specific starting time for your daily prayer time.
2. Have a special place set aside as a retreat for your time alone with God.
3. Plan how long you will stay there with God each day.
4. Turn off the phone and remove any other distractions.
5. If you have others depending on you, either pick a time when you will be undisturbed or let them know you are not available during that time.

Some possible items to enhance your prayer time

1. Your Bible
2. A hymnal
3. A digital timer
4. A pen and paper
5. A pillow for comfort

Benefits of a consistent prayer life

1. It will ennoble and elevate you personally.
2. It will allow you to receive God’s guidance (Psalm 32:8; Jeremiah 33:3).
3. It will strengthen you for the struggles and trials you face.
4. It will allow God to give you the right words to say.

Grief Recovery

How does someone get over the loss of a loved one? By ignoring the emptiness? By not talking about the one who’s now gone? By keeping a stiff upper lip and choking back the sobs? Coping with grief isn’t easy, but in this book Larry Yeagley, founder of Grief Recovery Seminars, shares his time-tested insights into how to cope with grief.

Grief Recovery walks readers through the stages of grief and demonstrates how grief is different for everyone. This book is full of stories and exercises to help those struggling with loss. It covers topics including the anatomy of grief, tasks of grieving, moving toward recovery, grief and marriage, grief and the family, intentional grieving, and much more.

This book is the product of Larry Yeagley’s extensive experience as a grief counselor combined with his personal experience with the grief of losing a son. Grief Recovery will assist readers in becoming proactive in knowing what to expect during times of grief.

Winning Ways to Witness DVD

Adventists are faced with the predicament of fulfilling Christ’s missional mandate with a taskforce that is largely reluctant to witness. In this DVD set, Pastor David Hartman presents an interactive training seminar on seven different witnessing styles. This multidimensional witnessing approach involves more members and attracts more unbelievers. Participants will learn how to match the various witnessing styles with the faith stages of conversion for maximal evangelistic impact. This training resource includes four 90-minute presentations, PowerPoint® files enabling the leader to give his or her own presentations, participant guides and handouts, and promotional materials.

Reaching Church Members Who Don’t Use Twitter

Using Twitter’s Fast Follow service, members of your church who have not signed up for Twitter can now follow your Twitter feed via SMS messaging. This is a simple way for people to get information they want in real-time. All church members need to do is text “follow [insert TwitterName]” to 40404 and they will immediately begin receiving Tweets for that account without signing up. Twitter and text messaging are great ways to keep church members updated about events, cancellations, and other news.
