Harbor of Hope Work Bee

The Harbor of Hope Church has recently been blessed with a new building: the former Berrien County Health Department. This building is such a blessing and will be used for church activities and outreach.

On May 17th, there will be a renovation day at the venue because the building still needs some work before it can be used. Harbor of Hope invites anyone and everyone to lend a hand to the spreading of God’s love in Benton Harbor.

Renovations will begin at 9 A.M. and go until 5 P.M. Breakfast and lunch will be served. Work will include landscaping, pulling up carpet, washing windows and taking down partitions.

- Things to bring: utility knives and gloves
- Address: 769 Pipestone St.
  Benton Harbor

GROW Groups:
Personal Testimony

GROW Groups brought "church" home for me. Since I'm more of a 1:1 person, being in a large group is sometimes overwhelming for me. But belonging to a small group and studying about God helped me feel more connected and engaged with the members of the group, the topics we discussed in God’s Word each week, and ultimately my relationship with God Himself. It became more real for me. I felt more personally focused as I was able to relax and belong to an actual group of multigenerational Christians discussing God and serving others. In the beginning, those in my GROW Group were acquaintances, but in the end we were more like family.

SDA POTUS?

Now there’s a thought! Ben Carson, the Seventh-day Adventist pediatric neurosurgeon of Johns Hopkins fame, announced to the world on Monday that he is running for the office of President of the United States (POTUS). At a carefully choreographed campaign kickoff rally in Detroit, Dr. Carson returned to his boyhood home for the media event. His book, Gifted Hands, describes his inner city boyhood providentially turned around by a praying single-parent mother (with a third grade education)—a mother who challenged her son to aspire to his God-given potential. It was the impetus he needed... read more
