Greetings!

A couple of weeks ago, I came down with that nasty cold that seems to be going around. I'm not one to get sick that often, so when it does happen, it hits hard! I found myself house bound for about 5 days. You know when you're sick and it's tough to focus on much of anything? Well, that's where I found myself. So, I turned to the cure all: Comedy. What better way to spend your time than watching a funny movie when you aren't feeling well? That's exactly what I did. And you know what? It worked. I found myself chuckling and before I knew it, I was on the mend.

This got me thinking about Ken Davis. The first time I heard his humor was in a speech class that I had a while ago. The teacher brought in a DVD of Ken's comedy to discuss how humor can be a vehicle to convey other messages. I gotta say, he's really great at it. He has this natural ability to make you laugh and make you think.

We're blessed to have Ken Davis joining us for quite a few different concerts; sharing his laughter, stories and insight. If you want to find out more about how to get tickets, you can head to the Positive Life Radio website. I encourage you to take as many people as you can with you! If you or someone you know is struggling with the winter blues, colds, or just wanna have a fun time, check it out!

Peace and blessings on your week!
