Greetings!

We are in week four of The Story Project, and have heard three stories -each unique- with the common theme of how God can speak to us in surprising and amazing ways.

This week, our fourth story is from Amber.

Amber went through a time in her life where she found herself turning to other things to find happiness. Searching for something to bring her joy and fulfillment, she found herself in a dark point in her life. It was at this point that she found a place that introduced to her to hope and freedom, and soon found that the music on Positive Life Radio brought her the peace she needed.

Join us this week as we are blessed and inspired by Amber's story. You can watch her story on our website by clicking here.

Week 4: Amber

Four weeks into The Story Project, we have heard many stories that have shown us that God truly speaks to us each individually in incredible ways. This week, we are joining Amber as she tells us her story.

Going through a particularly low point in her life, Amber withdrew from her family and friends to pursue happiness through other means. She soon found that there was nothing on earth that could fill the void that she had tried to fill for so long. She found a place that gave her hope and encouragement to a better life, and it was there that Positive Life Radio became an important part of her life.

Watch and listen as Amber shares her story below.
